EGYPTIAN CAPITAL SEES MORE RIOTS BY NATIONAL MOB

Disorder Breaks Out in Several Different Localities —Most Serious Occurrence Since Last March and April—Three Police Stations Are Set on Fire by Rioters.

BRITISH TROOPS DISPERSE MOBS, MANY BEING KILLED OR WOUNDED

CAIRO, Nov. 16.—Ten persons were killed and 120 injured, ninety of whom suffered gunshot wounds, in a riotous demonstration which continued here all day today. The disorder was the most serious since the disturbances last March and April.

The police stations were set on fire by mobs, which liberated prisoners and paraded the streets carrying wounded rioters. British troops finally succeeded in restoring order.

The rioting was in five different localities. The object of the mobs in storming the police stations was to release demonstrators who had been arrested. They freed several such prisoners. The number of minor casualties cannot be estimated. The Egyptian infantry fired into the crowds at two places where the rioting was going on, killing two persons and wounding several others.

No Europeans were injured, although the rioters entered several European houses and accused the inmates of firing on the crowd.

CAIRO, Nov. 20.—Students carrying Egyptian flags and shouting "Down with Milner" began the rioting here. Roughs joined with them and got the upper hand of the native police. The infantry were compelled to fire on the mobs storming the police stations, further infuriating the rioters.

The British troops finally restored order, driving off the demonstrators, who were armed with rifles and sticks.

Tonight the city is heavily patrolled.

ALEXANDRIA, Sunday, Nov. 16.—Six thousand persons participated in the Coptic demonstration this morning on the occasion of the funeral of a Copt killed yesterday. In the afternoon 10,000, mostly Moslems, paraded through the principal streets.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Great Britain declines to be deflected from her Egyptian policy by the demonstrations that are taking place in Egypt on the part of the Nationalists, according to well-informed sources. She is absolutely determined, it is indicated, to continue in the course mapped out, as she regards herself as trustee for the whole people of Egypt.

Therefore, despite the demonstration against it, the commission appointed by Lord Milner, Secretary for the Colonies, will proceed to Cairo, it is declared.

Sneaking Propaganda

LONDON, Nov. 20.—In the House of Commons today Edward Shortt, Home Secretary, referred to the immense amount of anti-British propaganda with reference to Egypt purporting to emanate from the American press and circulated here in the form of pamphlets. He declared that it was most difficult to take action looking toward their suppression. He explained that seditious utterances and allegations of atrocities by British soldiers were first distributed to newspapers in the United States by the propaganda bureaus there; they were clipped from these papers and re-published in Great Britain as expressions made by American newspapers.

PRINCE GIVES DAY TO WEST POINT

Is Greeted by Great New York Crowds on Way to and From Military Academy—Goes to Halifax Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The vivid interest which New Yorkers feel in the Prince of Wales was attested today by the cheering crowds which packed the Grand Central Station to see him off to West Point, and again welcomed him on his return to the city. The Prince took part in no functions within the city today. He spent the day at West Point military academy, where he reviewed three battalions of cadets and took the salute. After lunch he addressed the cadets, who answered with their famous school yell. The Prince was compelled to decline an invitation to visit Boston. He will sail from New York on Saturday afternoon for Halifax, where he will say goodbye to Canada next week before sailing for England.

The trip to West Point was the big event of the day and occupied the major portion of it. Accompanied by Earl Grey, the British Ambassador, Major General O'Ryan, commander of the New York State troops, and members of his staff, the Prince, dressed in the uniform of a colonel of the Welsh Guards, boarded a special train at the Grand Central Station at 11:45 a.m.

At Garrison, the little river station where he alighted to take the ferry for West Point, a very pretty picture was presented. The younger school children of the village, ranging in age from 10 to 15 years, lined the path from the station to the ferry boat. The girls were on one side and the boys on the other and alternate small hands grasped U.S. and British flags, while the boys used their disengaged hands to perform a highly creditable military salute. The salute was re-

MINISTER FINDS WORK AVAILABLE

Figures Given in Connection With Stoppage of Unemployment Doles—Question of Domestic Service.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—In the debate which ended by killing the payment of unemployment donations to civilians, it was stated that the total number now receiving donations was 475,000, including 344,000 ex-service men, 101,000 civilians and 34,000 women. The Minister of Labor added that it was his view that a large amount of work was available. The Ministry also estimated that 12,000 ex-officers in the London district alone are unemployed, most of them without technical qualifications.

F. A. McQuister, of Glasgow, made a vigorous condemnation of unemployment donations to women, who, he said, had been treated very well while in the Government service, and for whom plenty of civilian work was available directly the armistice was declared.

"I would like to ration servants," he declared. "I am not talking of the mistress who advertises that ten servants are kept. I am talking of the poor mothers with five or six children who cannot get a single servant."

It appears in tonight's papers that even while Mr. McQuister was speaking in the Commons, a picked party of women were sailing down the Mersey for domestic service in Canada.

GERMAN DELEGATES LEFT IN UNCERTAINTY

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—The present whereabouts of Germany's ill-starred labor delegates to the Washington labor conference is still a matter of speculation, as official quarters up to this morning were uninformed whether the delegates will be able to leave a Scandinavian port for New York before being recalled to Berlin.

Doubts respecting the sincerity and loyalty of the Entente governments are expressed by the Boersen Zeitung, which says the belief is now confirmed that the Germans "are victims of a pre-concerted intrigue" and that the Paris and London Governments have succeeded in "doping" the congress by excluding Germany from active participation in the international adjustment of labor issues.

HAS NO NEGOTIATIONS WITH BOLSHEVIKI

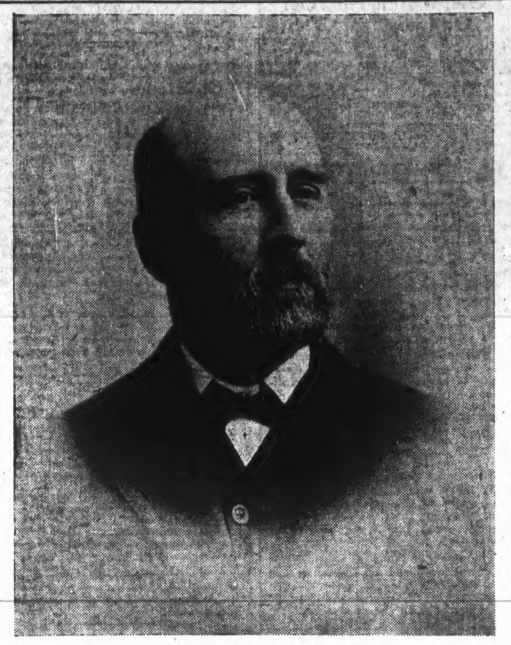

PARIS, Nov. 20.—The Japanese delegation to the peace conference today denied a published report that negotiations were in progress between the Russian soviet government and Japan.

A dispatch from London under date of November 14, quoted the Berlin correspondent of The Daily Herald, a labor organ, as saying he had learned that the Russian soviet government, in view of the victorious advance of its army in Siberia, was trying to get into touch with Japan in order to regulate outstanding questions.

He Hears Death's Summons

MR. F. L. CARTER-COTTON

Mr. F. L. Carter-Cotton Passes to His Rest

Succumbs Indirectly to Shock From Immersion in False Creek—Long Associated With Public Affairs of Vancouver and Province—Able and Upright in Character.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 20.—In the death of Mr. Francis L. Carter-Cotton at his home here this morning at 11 o'clock, British Columbia loses one of her most prominent citizens, and a man who had been actively identified with the public affairs of the province for a quarter of a century. An Englishman by birth, he had been identified with political affairs and commercial and other enterprises, and had enjoyed in a remarkable degree the confidence of his fellow-citizens. Last September the late Mr. Carter-Cotton suffered an immersion in False Creek, from the shock of which he never actually recovered.

Mr. Carter-Cotton was born in England in 1843, and he first came to Canada in 1879, but did not decide to take up his permanent residence in this country until 1886. Vancouver was chosen by him as his place of residence, and in the following year he established The News-Advertiser newspaper, of which he remained the editor and manager until he disposed of his interest in it in 1910.

With Mr. J. W. Horne, he was elected the first member that Vancouver had in the Provincial Legislature. He was re-elected in 1894 and 1898, but was defeated in 1900. In 1903 he was elected for Richmond, and sat as representative of that constituency until the last provincial election, which he did not contest. He was Minister of Finance and Agriculture from 1898 to 1900, Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works from 1899 to 1900, and President of the Council from 1904 to 1910. During the time that he served in the Legislature he offered on behalf of the province to guarantee a portion of the cost of the Pacific cable. It was later laid down without expense to the Province.

Mr. Carter-Cotton was first president of the Royal Society for the Advancement of Learning, to which position he was elected in 1906. In the same year Mr. Carter-Cotton endowed a chair of pure and applied mathematics in the B.C. branch of McGill University. He was also first Chancellor of the University of British Columbia, was an honorary member of McGill University, and had the honorary degree of LL.D. conferred upon him.

The Canadian Government appointed him first chairman of the Vancouver Harbor Commission in 1913, a position that he held until quite recently. He was one of the founders and charter members of the Vancouver Board of Trade, and was elected without opposition as its president in 1913. During the time that he sat in the Provincial Legislature Mr. Carter-Cotton performed the feat of traveling 1,100 miles from Vancouver to the Cariboo, 560 miles of which was done on horseback. This remarkable trip was undertaken in May, 1900, in the interests of party organization, Mr. Carter-Cotton being engaged in a complete tour of the upper country constituency.

During his journalistic career tributes were paid by contemporary journalists, who described him as the best editorial writer in the Province and one of the clearest and ablest speakers on financial questions in the West. Of his great influence on the political and economical thought of his day much has been said by those with whom he was associated in his long public career, all of whom refer to his outstanding ability and sound judgment in public affairs.

"The late Mr. Carter-Cotton was a man of strong outstanding personality," said Mr. Charles E. Tisdall, who was elected with Mr. Carter-Cotton on the same ticket twenty-one years ago. "His influence in and around Vancouver for over a score of years was tremendous in the deciding of every important public question. This influence was always rightly used, and no doubt he has left his mark on the history of this country and on the public questions of his day and generation. He settled many important public affairs which, owing

TALK ON BUYING OF GRAND TRUNK

President Beatty, of Canadian Pacific, and Mr. D. B. Hanna, Give Views—Former Denies Lobby Assertion.

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the C. P. Railway, in addressing the Empire Club at a luncheon today on the subject of Ontario and its railways said, touching on the acquisition of the Grand Trunk and other railway systems by the Government:

"Whatever divergence there may be in the views as to the advisability of the policies which have led to the acquisition of this extensive mileage and its operation under the Government, there can be but one view as to the desirability of its success.

"I can, I think, say with perfect candor and honesty that no one desires its success more than I, and this is a hope, which, I think, can fairly be re-ched by anyne wh desires the burdens of this country to be as light as possible and the freight and passenger rates as low as possible."

Mr. Beatty emphatically denied the statement of Hon. Dr. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways and Canals, that the C.P.R. lobbied the parliament of Canada with a view to defeating the bill fr the acquitian by the Government of the Grand Trunk Railway. It was before the Toronto Board of Trade that the Minister of Railways made the charge.

"In the course of Dr. Reid's remarks," said Mr. Beatty, "he said nothing in the history of Canada has equalled the lobbying which had been conducted by the Canadian Pacific against the measure before Parliament for the acquisition of the Grand Trunk. If there was a lobby, I think I would have known about it, and I did not know about it. I think some one would have told me something about it, but I am in a position to tell them that neither directly nor indirectly was the vote of any single member of the House of Commons or the Senate of Canada influenced in any way by or on behalf of the C.P.R."

D. B. Hanna, General Manager of the Canadian National Railways, tonight surveyed Canada's publicly-owned transportation system thus:

"When all the railways are consolidated we will have 22,375 miles of railway operated in every Province of the Dominion, including 1,851 miles in the United States. That railway will be one of the most gigantic in the history of the world. It will employ 80,000 men and will have gross earnings of $170,000,000 annually. I venture to predict that in five years we will have probably $225,000,000 gross earnings, and there is nothing to prevent the property being made a success if you and others will see to it that neither members of Parliament nor the Government are permitted to have a hand in the management of the road Sir Robert Borden has made this statement himself."

RUSSIANS IN NORTH GAIN MORE GROUND FROM SOVIET ARMY

Report Uninterrupted Offensive and Capture of Several Places—Bolsheviki Driven Along Shore of Lake Onega—Deny Report of Retirement Sent From Moscow

WORKMEN REVOLT AGAINST SOVIETS

Red Army Reported to Be Losing Men Who Were Forcibly Mobilized—Story of Occupation of Omsk—Esthonians United Against Threatened Invasion by Bolsheviki

ARCHANGEL, Nov. 19.—The following summary has been issued by general headquarters, dealing with the operations on the Murmansk front during the past fortnight:

"Our troops have carried out an uninterrupted offensive, defeating the enemy and pursuing him along the eastern shore of Lake Onejski and capturing various places on the Chaulgsky peninsula. Attacks by an enemy flotilla on these positions were repulsed.

"The report that we proposed to retire from the Murmansk front is a Bolsheviki invention. In the Rigobelsky sector, on the railroad front, our offensive is being obstinately resisted."

The situation in Soviet Russia daily is growing more serious. In several towns workers without employment and desperately hungry have revolted against the Bolsheviki. Factories are closed, and the people are living on vegetables.

The Red terror is spreading throughout the country. The Red army is becoming demoralized, and troops who were forcibly mobilized are deserting in streams. Fugitives are arriving in Archangel barefooted and in rags.

NOVO NIKOLAIEVSK, Sunday, Nov. 16.—Omsk was occupied by the Reds on November 15. The evacuation was hastened by an uprising at Kouladeino, which for a long time has been a Bolshevik centre. The bridge was blown up by the Siberians.

Omsk is reported to have been partially burned following the destruction of the ammunition supply.

Gen. Kappell, with the Siberian troops, retired 10 miles east of Omsk. Gen. Koltchak and Gen. Sakharoff are expected here shortly.

Bolsheviki Boasting

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A Bolsheviki wireless message received here says:

"The British bourgeoise are dismayed and are attempting to arrange a peace conference in which Soviet Russia and its white guard enemies can participate.

"The transformation is the work of the red army which prepared the ground for diplomatic negotiations.

"After the reds had driven Koltchak eastward, Denikine southward and Yudenitch into the sea, the idea of negotiations with Soviet Russia began to warm in the minds of the bewildered Allies. While the Entente is convening a peace conference the reds will finally defeat the black hundred impostors and the Entente will face the only lawful Russian Government, that of the Soviets."

Esthonians Unite

REVAL, Nov. 20.—The Esthonian Government crisis ended today when the constituent assembly ratified the new cabinet formed and headed by Joan Tonnison as Premier.

In consequence of the threatening by the Bolsheviki of the Esthonian frontier, all the parties in Esthonia have agreed to a truce and to work for the protection of the new Government, which does not intend to alter its inferior or foreign policies.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Esthonian legation in London asserts that M. Litvinoff, the representative of the Russian Bolsheviki who attended the Dorpat conference, told the representative of the press at Dorpat that the Bolsheviki were prepared to yield their Gulf of Finland fleet as a guarantee of peace and to establish a neutral zone between Russia and the border states.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Lettish troops, after heavy fighting have occupied the town of Bausk, in Courland, about 20 miles southeast of Mitau, the Lettish legation here announced today. Enormous booty left by the Germano-Russian forces of Colonel Bermondtt was captured there. The process of surrounding Mitau is progressing favorably.

REFLECT ON QUALITY OF AMERICAN SHOES

THE HAGUE, Nov. 20.—A controversy of possible far-reaching effect on American trade relations in Holland is in progress in the Amsterdam and Rotterdam municipal councils regarding the quality of American shoes, of which thousands of pairs have been imported by the municipalities in an effort to break the high prices of the Dutch manufacturers.

The possibility of an extraordinary after-the-war trade plot was hinted at in a meeting of the Rotterdam Council last night. Alderman de Miranda said that shoes which Dutch dealers had derisively displayed in their windows to show their poor quality were not American, but German, "ersatz" leather having been substituted by the dealers to convince the public that American shoes were of poor quality and made of paper.

TAXATION INQUIRY STARTED YESTERDAY

First Session of Commission Attended by Representatives of Island Cities Who Present Case for More Civic Revenue

The investigation into the question of municipal taxation in British Columbia was commenced yesterday morning at the opening session of the Municipal Revenues Commission at the Belmont Building.

The gathering at the hearing yesterday morning included Premier Oliver, Mayor Porter, Aldermen Cameron, Sargent, Patrick, Johns and Harvey, City Comptroller J. L. Raymur, E. S. Woodward, president of the Trades and Labor Council; F. A. McDiarmid, James Forman, F. B. Pemberton, and representatives of Saanich and Esquimalt.

Hon. John Hart said that a municipal delegation at last year's session had asked for increased sources of revenue. It was in accordance with a promise given by the Government at that time that the session was being held.

Alderman Sargent blamed the last real estate boom for the city's present financial position. The city had been forced to take over ninety-five per cent of the land offered for sale this Spring, and the value of this would have to be taken from the assessment roll. He prophesied that the same thing would happen next year. The fact that land owners could not pay their taxes was putting the city into debt at the rate of $175,000 annually for the past three years.

Paris Strikers Surrender

PARIS, Nov. 20.—Striking employees of the department stores have decided to resume work tomorrow, although no solution of the dispute with the employers has been reached.

Will Soon Proceed To Enforce Treaty

Members of Supreme Council Favor Putting It Into Effect on December 1, If Possible—Preparations Nearly Complete—Germans Are Encouraged by Disagreement

PARIS, Nov. 20—While the Supreme Council did not positively decide today to put the peace treaty with Germany into effect on December 1, its members all agreed that it would be desirable to do so. An effort will be made to have all preparations for the enforcement of the will be put into effect very early in treaty complete by that date, and it December, regardless of the failure of the United States to ratify the treaty.

The American delegates declare themselves still hopeful that a compromise would be arranged in the Senate, but the French and British delegates are apparently less optimistic, and inclined to prepare to carry out the treaty without American cooperation. Suggestions that another treaty more to the liking of the European Allies be negotiated apparently are not taken seriously.

No formal meeting has been held between the German delegates who arrived yesterday and the representatives of the powers concerning the protocol to the German peace treaty. It now seems unlikely that the protocol will be signed before the end of November as the Germans oppose the provision requiring them to replace warships sunk when their fleet was scuttled at Scapa Flow.

The failure of the Allied and Associated Powers to reach an agreement on the treaty is reported to have greatly encouraged the Germans.

As the protocol must be arranged before the formal announcement of ratification between the three powers required to make it effective, the date of putting the treaty into effect seems uncertain.

British Public Men Silent

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Nearly all the British public men are silent concerning the United States Senate's dealings with the peace treaty. The reason for this is that they understand United States citizens regard the question as a United States domestic political affair, and fear that any expressions from them might give offense and be taken as attempts to influence United States politics.

Lord Robert Cecil and Lieut.-General Jan Christian Smuts were the British sponsors for the League of Nations, and are largely responsible for the details thereof, and both have registered their disappointment at the latest turn of events. General Smuts in his appeal to the United States and Lord Robert Cecil in a brief speech in the House of Commons on Monday.

Lord Robert stands on that speech, and refers all questioners to it as being all he has to say on the subject for the present.

It would be impossible to try to summarize public opinion. The first view reflected by the newspapers was that the United States had gone back on her agreement. Later advices from Washington, however, softened this feeling. United States affairs generally, the relations between the Senate and the President, the rule regarding the two-thirds majority and how a concurrent resolution might bring peace with Germany are puzzling problems to the average man.

The point the Liberal papers are laying stress on is that if the United States keeps out of the League of Nations the world will be thrown back into the old whirlpool of competitive armaments. A question much debated is whether it will be possible to carry on the League without the United States, how far the United States' example would influence other nations which have not yet committed themselves to keep out of the League, and whether the South American Governments would follow the lead of the United States.

SERBIA'S PLIGHT IS DISTRESSING

Dr. Vesnitch Describes Desperate Condition in Which His Country Has Been Placed.

PARIS, Nov. 20.—Conditions in Serbia are appalling, and reconstruction work is proceeding with discouraging slowness, Dr. Milenko R. Vesnitch, of the Jugo-Slav delegation to the peace conference, told the correspondent today.

The whole trouble lies in the crippled condition of the railroads in Serbia, he declared. Serbia was overrun three times by her enemies, but the Bulgarian invasion, being conducted along lines of thorough devastation, resulted in only one railway bridge being left intact in the kingdom. It now requires three days to make a railroad trip from Salonica to Belgrade, while trains from Nish traveling in a northerly direction average five miles an hour.

One clause of the Bulgarian treaty with which the Serbians find fault is that concerning reparations. The delegates pointed out that Serbia, an agricultural country, was virtually stripped of its cattle by the Bulgarians.

BELGIAN ELECTIONS FAVOR SOCIALISTS

BRUSSELS, Nov. 20.—The result of the elections gives the Socialists 644,499 votes; Catholics, 618,595; Liberals 309,463; Christian Democrats, 45,187; Front Party, 42,175; Middle Classes, 22,543; National Regenerationists, 14,432.

The Socialists and Liberals will have 104 seats in the chamber of representatives and the other parties 70.

RISING QUELLED AT VLADIVOSTOK

Koltchak's Troops Suppress Attempt to Secure Constituent Assembly — Czech General Gaida Is Prisoner.

VLADIVOSTOK, Nov. 18.—Revolutionary forces which for two days have attempted to obtain control of this city were completely defeated by Government troops today. General Gaida, revolutionary leader, was wounded and captured, and his followers were driven from every point of vantage by Government troops.

Shortly after midnight Government troops moved two three-inch field guns into position at the Svetlandskaia bridge, by which the main thoroughfare of the city crosses the Siberian railroad. The bridge is only 500 yards north of the station, the strongest position of the rebels. A little later, troops, reinforced by 100 cadets from the naval training school, proceeded to the business centre of the city, while armored cars began arriving at the bridge.

Before the battle opened international policemen and three American soldiers gained entrance to the railway station, from which they took two Russian women who had been marooned there since the fighting started.

At one o'clock there was a burst of machine gun fire against rebels holding the railway yards, and gunboats started to drop shells on the station. Some of the shells set fire to the barracks of the American replacement battalion.

While Government officials expressed the belief there would be little resistance by the rebels, the latter seemed to be in control of the railroad yards, although exposed to artillery fire from the high ground about the city. Fire was opened at four o'clock on the station from the field guns on the Svetlandskaia bridge. Later the fighting became general, with the revolutionists falling back everywhere and finally being driven from the station.

The social revolutionary zemstovo group had proclaimed their new democratic representative government Monday morning. A few hours later the opposing forces clashed for possession of the railway station, approximately 5,000 rifle and machine gun shots being fired before nightfall. Government forces under General Rozanoff held the entire town with the exception of the immediate vicinity of the station, and in addition controlled the line of hills west and north of the town. Machine guns were placed at street corners.

Allied troops patrolled the city, with American troops protecting American organizations. The United States cruiser New Orleans and the Brooklyn, under command of Vice-Admiral Rodgers, are lying in the harbor.

Hoisted on top of General Gaida's train near the station was a green and white flag, the colors of the Siberian assembly, which was dissolved by Admiral Koltchak. On the banner were inscribed the words: "For a Constituent Assembly."

After the proclamation of the revolutionaries yesterday morning in which they announced their opposition to Koltchak, a semblance of a ministry was formed on General Gaida's train, Ivan Alexandrovitch Yakushiff being named president.

General Gaida, a Czech, who commanded the Ural army of the Omsk Government until his recent resignation, was named commander-in-chief of the new Government's military forces.

Announcement was made by the Allied military council at six o'clock last night that it had decided that the Allies should not interfere in the movement, which was considered political in character.

Property of Russians and Allied subjects was protected last night by American, Japanese, French, Italian, Serbian, Lettish and Russian soldiers forming the international police corps. All approaches to the railway station were under heavy guard.

After three raids against the railroad station, General Gaida's troops occupied the building and he established headquarters there at about 5 p. m. The losses in this fighting were six dead and twenty wounded on the Gaida side. The losses to the Government troops were not announced. It is estimated that 100 civilians were victims of the firing, some being killed.

The American Red Cross is caring for 58 wounded.

A British Red Cross officer was killed at the station plaza. T. W. Rowland of Hermosa Beach, Calif., a sailmaker's mate on the New Orleans, was hit by a bullet and is not expected to live.

During the station fighting Russian gunboats bombarded the railroad yards, the objective evidently being General Gaida's train. By 11 p. m. there was only desultory rifle firing south of the station. The warships, playing their searchlights on the city, aided the Allied patrols in their work.

It is reported that a similar uprising has occurred at Chita, in the Trans-Baikal region.

DOMINION SHOWS CRIME INCREASE

Record for Last Year Is Worse Than That for 1917, According to Report of Statistician.

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—A considerable increase in crime throughout the Dominion is shown by the bluebook dealing with criminal statistics for the year 1918, just issued from the office of the Dominion statistician. According to the returns there were during the year 21,474 charges and 17,370, convictions for indictable offences in the several provinces, as compared with 19,559 charges and 15,559 convictions the year before, being an increase of 2,293, or nearly 12 per cent, for charges, and an increase of 1,811, or slightly over 11 1-2 per cent, for convictions during the year. The percentage of acquittals ran from 12 per cent in Prince Edward Island to over 27 per cent in Nova Scotia.

The number of convictions increased during the year in all the provinces except Alberta, British Columbia and the Yukon. The higher increases were in Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba and Nova Scotia, and the larger decrease in British Columbia.

The number of summary convictions jumped from 98,452 in 1917 to 105,899 in 1918. Of these less than eight per cent were women offenders. Eighty-two per cent of the number of persons convicted of minor offences were fined, three per cent were sentenced to imprisonmnt without option of a fine, and 15 per cent were allowed to go on suspended sentence. Of the minor offenders against the law, 21,026 were convicted for drunkenness, as against 27,882 during the previous year.

Drunkenness decreased by nearly 25 per cent in Canada during the year, increases being confined to the provinces of Manitoba and Alberta. In the last named province convictions numbered 825, as compared with 319 the previous year, an increase of 111 per cent, while in Manitoba convictions rose from 1,085 to 1,123, an increase of 3 1-2 per cent.

The beneficial effects of wartime prohibition are demonstrated by a table showing that for the war period 1914-1918, there was a decline of 65 per cent in the number of convictions for drunkenness.

The percentage decrease by provinces was: Prince Edward Island, 73; Nova Scotia, 39; New Brunswick, 60; Quebec, 48; Ontario, 55; Manitoba, 82; Saskatchewan, 78; Alberta, 85; British Columbia, 92; Yukon, 69.

BANDIT CARLISLE THANKS COMPANY

CASPER, Wyo., Nov. 20.—William Carlisle, train bandit, walked into the Western Union office here today while scores of heavily-armed men searched the surrounding country for him, and sent a telegram to the Union Pacific Railroad office in Cheyenne thanking the railroad for the money he secured from passengers on the Los Angeles limited train which he held up near Medicine Bow, Tuesday night. The message read:

"Union Pacific, Cheyenne:

"Thanks for haul on your limited. Some detective force.

Escapes From Vancouver Jail

VANCOUVER, Nov. 20.—Sawing away two of the iron bars guarding the window at the end of a corridor, John L. Rice, alias Ryan, succeeded in escaping from the jail at police headquarters some time during Wednesday night. Rice, who, under the name of Ryan, was awaiting trial on charges of stealing an automobile and being drunk while in charge of a car, had been in custody for two weeks, and was due to appear before the court today.

SENATE'S COURSE MAY SPEED PEACE

Ottawa Expects That Formal Proclamation Will Soon Come Now That Uncertainty at Washington Is Ended.

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—That the action of the United States Senate in declining to ratify the peace treaty is not likely to delay the formal proclamation of peace is the opinion held in Government circles at the Capital. While definite advices are lacking as to the exact position of matters relating to the formal proclamation of peace at Paris, it is thought that the final step would not have been taken so long as there was a possibility of ratification by the United States Senate. Definite action by the Senate may, therefore, bring the formal termination of the war perceptibly nearer instead of postponing the event.

It is not known here whether or not the ratification papers of Great Britain, France and Italy have all been deposited at Paris. There is doubt in regard to Italy, but once they are, peace can be formally proclaimed, the peace treaty having been ratified by three of the great Allied Powers which participated in the war.

Canada's formal proclamation of peace, it is expected, will follow close upon the heels of that of Great Britain. As soon as the proclamation appears in The Canada Gazette, which should be only a matter of a few hours, war time orders-in-council issued under the authority of the War Measures Act, including the prohibition regulations, all cease to be operative, excepting such as are continued in force by virtue of legislation passed at the recent session of Parliament.

PLANS MORE CABLES FOR PACIFIC SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Opposing government cable construction in the Pacific Ocean, George G. Ward, general manager of the Commercial Pacific Cable Company, in a letter today to Chairman Jones of the Senate interstate commerce committee, further outlined plans of his company for a San Francisco-Japan line.

The company already is negotiating for landing rights in Japan, he said, the cable to be either direct or via Guam.

Mr. Ward added that his company also proposed to lay an additional line of its existing cable to Honolulu and to Midway, and had made an offer for the Pacific cables of Germany, dealt with in the peace treaty. He expressed the opinion that these plans would make cable service in the Pacific more than adequate.

RELIEF MEASURES TAKEN IN ALBERTA

CALGARY, Nov. 20.—That immediate relief is being afforded distressed farmers in the South was the statement made here today by H. A. Craig, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, who was on a brief visit to the city. In this connection, he said that it was possible for families in unorganized districts to secure credit at the present time to the extent of $100 for the purchase of coal, flour, rolled oats, potatoes, and some kind of fats.

The Deputy Minister said in the first place the mild weather had immensely relieved the situation.

On account of the failure of the crops in certain parts of the south, said Mr. Craig, there is a necessity for relief in many cases through no special fault of the people themselves. The area which would require relief, however, was quite limited, and in that area it was probable that not more than ten or fifteen per cent of the people would require relief.

In reply to a question, Mr. Craig stated that relief had already been given to about 100 families. The average amount asked for had been about $60 per family. This, said the deputy minister, may have to be increased later. That depended upon the severity of the Winter.

In the organized districts the work was being taken care of by municipalities. Provision had been made whereby the credit of the municipality would be guaranteed by the Provincial Government.

NORTH ONTARIO TALKS SECESSION

Agitation for Separation From Old Part of Province Is Revised — Arrangements for Convention Made.

COBALT, Ont., Nov. 20.—In Northern Ontario the question of the secession of this part of the Province from Southern Ontario is one of the chief topics of discussion. The movement has gained such proportions as to be impossible to ignore. Rightly or wrongly, the advisability of such a step probably will be discussed at length and in the finest detail by the leading citizens of the north.

To this end, a monster convention is being planned, and probably will be held about the second or third week in January. The present situation appears to have been born of the belief, long standing, that the mining and lumbering districts have not received due recognition.

Premier Drury, in selecting H. Mills, a former locomotive engineer, to administer the Department of Mines, has, it is said, added fuel to the fires of discontent.

The secession proposal is not a new one, but seems to be stronger than ever before. The Council of North Bay and the Board of Trade of that place are now perfecting an organization which will take the matter in hand.

They propose to get every municipality in the North behind the scheme, and with this end in view are preparing for the convention.

A business office has already been opened. A separate organization is to be secured in each municipality. The councils, boards of trade, industries, mining and lumbering interests are to be asked to participate. The convention will be representative of every interest in the vast area involved.

The territory referred to by the secessionists as "North Ontario" takes in the districts of Patricia, Kenora, Rainy River, Thunder Bay, Algoma, Sudbury, Cochrane, Temiskaming and the northern part of Nipissing.

This is about 1,000 miles from east to west. From North Bay to Albany, on James Bay, is 470 miles, and Ontario goes farther north than that point. The southern part, from the boundary line between Quebec and Ontario at the County of Prescott to the boundary between the State of Michigan and Essex County, is 500 miles, and from Toronto to North Bay is 225 miles.

Roughly, the north has 470,000 square miles, and the south, or Old Ontario, has 112,500 square miles.

BUSINESS QUESTIONS COME UP IN ONTARIO

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—The Ontario associated boards of trade and chambers of commerce opened its sixth annual meeting here today with representatives from many provincial towns and cities present. The meeting was presided over by William Taylor, of Owen Sound.

Many resolutions are to come before the meeting, starting tomorrow. They include that railway freight and express rates on coal, wood and fuel be reduced to the minimum of cost on all nationally-controlled lines as a factor in reducing the cost of living; that an empire trade mark and standard be adopted; that immigration of British citizens to the Dominions be facilitated, and if necessary subsidized, so that British commerce and British people may be retained under the flag; that a prohibitive tax be placed on foreign magazines with a circulation over 10,000 unless they add Canadian sections with space for Canadian advertisers; that a royal commission be appointed to study the tariff and investigate numerous claims for special consideration; for a bonus to steel shipbuilding; for the establishment of uniform rates of hydro-electric power; that the Ontario Government be asked to investigate the merits of an income tax based on net income as a substitute for the present tax.

This morning the meeting passed a resolution from the Toronto board of trade favoring daylight saving as a Dominion-wide measure. It was passed by one vote, that of the chairman.

WEST VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 20.—Twenty thousand dollars is a moderate estimate of the losses caused throughout the municipality by the recent floods. Engineer Bell stated today that the damage appears to be general.

A PRESSING NEED

Whatever may be the Federal Government's policy in the future to encourage the shipbuilding industry, whether by subsidy or bonus, the duty of the hour is to let contracts outright to existing yards so as to tide over a serious situation which has arisen during the period of reconstruction. In this community, and in Vancouver as well, there is considerable unemployment, which is increasing. British Columbia is faced by the situation of having had to absorb a new citizenship of at least 17,000 men, presumably many of them with their families, who have come here from other parts of the Dominion. The Government is responsible for their presence, inasmuch as it permitted returned soldiers, following demobilization, to go to any part of the country they liked, with their railway fares paid. It was a compliment to this Province that so many should have come here, but unfortunately the work is not available for them. Since other Provinces have been relieved, in proportion as men demobilized in them found their way to British Columbia, it is not too much to ask for special consideration for the Pacific Coast territory. The Government has assumed the duty of repatriation and re-establishment, but it will fail utterly in the task unless it takes cognisance of the present situation.

What is wanted in this community is the introduction of such work as will give employment to from 3,000 to 4,000 men. That work is wanted now. It can best be provided by the letting of new shipbuilding contracts for both steel and wooden vessels, by a speedy commencement of the construction of the Esquimalt drydock, and by an early start on the Johnson Street bridge. The only certainty we know of in these matters is that the drydock will be built, but every day the calling of tenders is postponed delays the beginning of that undertaking. Many months ago attention was called in these columns to the coming of the situation which has now developed. Just so long as the Government postpones action that situation will grow more acute. In an emergency of this character it ought not to be necessary for the Federal Cabinet to await the return of Sir Robert Borden to Ottawa. Men and women and children are suffering in this city. For immediate relief in the provision of work there is a responsibility upon both the Federal and Provincial Governments.

We appeal to Ottawa, without any farther beating about the bush, to set at work at once the machinery for creating employment both here and in Vancouver. One Cabinet Council meeting could decide on a shipbuilding programme which could be commenced within a few weeks—as the plants are available—and the knowledge of which would bring joy to thousands of hearts. The Dominion has the money which has been subscribed for re-establishment more than for any other cause, and the people are insistent that this money should be translated into employment for all. The time has passed by for the practice of circumlocutory methods in arriving at decisions which are imperiously demanded. A policy of postponement is creating hardships and suffering in hundreds of homes in this city alone, and many of those belong to returned soldier breadwinners. Under these circumstances speedy action is anticipated from the Dominion Government. To hasten it every organization in the community should make an immediate request to Ottawa.

TAXATION PROBLEMS

In the course of yesterday's session of the inquiry into municipal taxation Premier Oliver said that it looked as if property holders had allowed themselves to get into a hole and that now they came to the Government and said, "Pull us out." This is a somewhat callous way of criticising the present impasse, for which not only property owners are to blame, but also the municipal and Provincial authorities. The latter, especially, must assume their share of the criticism, because of the half-baked legislation devised for municipalities. It is all very well for the Government or the municipalities to blame present conditions on the real estate booming of some years ago. Both the Provincial Government and the municipalities condoned the gambling in real estate to the extent that they shut up the assessed values of properties in order that they might share in the game by deriving increased taxation. It was not only municipalities which went astray from statutory provisions, but the Province as well, for both assumed fictitious were real, or actual values and made their assessments and land accordingly.

We quite agree with Premier Oliver that every municipality should keep strictly within the letter of the law and base all assessments on actual values. We would go further and ask him and his Government to insist that in future this is done in Victoria. The assessment roll here is being prepared at present, and if it is kept down to the actual values of land, instead of being $45,000,000, as at present, it will be reduced to $22,500,000 or less. It is necessary, however, to point out to the Premier that when this legitimate reduction is made it will become even more essential than it is now for the municipality to have new sources of revenue. Undoubtedly taxes on land should be cut in two, since only about fifty per cent of them are being paid at present, but it will follow then that civic revenues, as well, will be only half what they are now from land, so that it is for the Premier and his commission to ascertain how the deficit will be made good.

No one will deny that municipal rates should be distributed among the different persons concerned, either in proportion to the benefits which they are likely to receive by the expenditure of the taxes or according to their ability to pay. The basing of the great bulk of municipal taxation on land values satisfies neither criterion. The trouble is that the Provincial Government largely restricts the taxation powers of municipalities to the raising of money from land, or improvements on land, or both, while it leaves the other wealth of the community for its own taxation purposes. Before any legitimate solution to the present problem can be reached it will be necessary to know what income the Province derives from organized municipalities. If it were possible to learn what was the wealth of Victoria, for instance, it would not be so difficult to ascertain what would be a legitimate proportion of taxation which it might bear. The Province and the municipality between them, from the records and statistics in their possession, should be in a position to arrive at the taxable wealth of this community, and for the purposes of comparison it would be interesting to learn the proportions of the receipts that go respectively to the Provincial and the civic exchequers. Possibly if such facts were made known, the people themselves could judge the benefits they derive from each Government and gauge if the amounts they pay for them are in proportion.

Yesterday's evidence before the Taxation Commission has not advanced us any nearer a solution. There is a multiplicity of opinions regarding what should be done, while on the other hand it seems difficult to impress upon the Government the seriousness of the situation. To all intents and purposes it is a Government commission which is sitting, whereas the municipalities should have full representation in such an inquiry. A Government Commission is not likely to suggest that the Province should deprive itself, of its own volition, of any sources of revenue, and it certainly will not do this until it is shown conclusively that unless it does the larger municipalities will face bankruptcy. Premier Oliver acknowledges that conditions here are due to the heavy burdens piled on the land, yet in another breath he says that property owners have allowed themselves to get into a hole. To be frank with him, we cannot reconcile the two statements. More than once during the course of the inquiry one or other of the commissioners has asked how it is suggested that the Province should recoup itself if it yields up any of its sources of revenue to the municipalities. It is difficult to give any complete answer to such a question unless first the Government makes public an estimate of the taxable wealth of British Columbia, with especial reference to the taxes now derived from all cities and urban municipalities. In the meantime there are very few who will deny the statement that administrative and legislative charges in British Columbia are at present quite beyond the needs of some 350,000 people.

THE LATE MR. CARTER-COTTON

There will be widespread regret throughout the Province at the news of the death of Mr. F. L. Carter-Cotton. He has had an interesting career in British Columbia, of which he was an old-time resident. In 1883 he founded The Vancouver News-Advertiser, a newspaper which a few years ago was amalgamated with The Vancouver Sun. For something like twenty years he was a member of the Legislature, and at different times was Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, Minister of Finance, and President of the Council. As a newspaperman he enjoyed an enviable reputation for capability, and at one time was spoken of by The Vancouver World as the best editorial writer in the Province. In his legislative capacity he was the recipient of wide confidence, and was peculiarly well informed on financial questions in Western Canada. He was a clear and able speaker who inspired confidence, and he was possessed of considerable business ability. Always keenly concerned about what was in the best interests of the Province, he was an assiduous worker in whatever capacity he found himself. Whenever the opportunity arose he made himself the sponsor of increased educational facilities, and we recall that he was especially interested in the foundation of the University of British Columbia. The Province is the poorer by his death, for it was men of his type who were responsible for building up Western Canada.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

No letters to the editor will be inserted except over the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception.

Municipal Taxation

Sir,—There is much being said today about arrears of taxes in this city, and I beg to make the following suggestions as a real estate man for many years in Victoria, and one who has valued all the property in this city for the assessor a few years ago, and one who has caused the erection of two business blocks in the city and being agents for other business blocks, and one who has given this matter much study endeavoring to make the buildings pay expenses, such as taxes, up-keep, and so forth, as well as one who has been looking after different estates consisting of large properties.

I find it very hard to meet all expenses in connection with the improved properties. I find taxes levied against vacant property so high that it is utterly impossible to do anything in any way to get sufficient revenue to meet the taxes, to say nothing of any interest on the investment from year to year. I also find some properties are assessed so high that no sane person on earth would dream of taking over the property for the taxes levied against it. This, of course, is all wrong. No city should assess a piece of property for more than it ever could be sold for at even the highest prospective valuation. The result is the city has attempted to sell a large amount of this property, which they, of course, could not do, and have been compelled to take it over. This means we are not deriving any income from any of the property taken over by the city.

Therefore, our City Fathers must make up this amount in some other way, and the only means they have is to raise the taxes on property owners who are paying their taxes, and this, I believe, has been done. The facts are, the people who are paying taxes are paying for those who are not paying, as the city must necessarily collect a certain amount from the people in some way to pay their general expenses.

They have also levied a 15% penalty per annum on all arrears of taxes after November 30th this year. This act, I consider, is a crime, as our good people of Victoria have donated huge amounts of cash to help win the terrible war that has been going on for the past five years. This naturally has left many of the people short of cash, and, in some cases, in hard circumstances.

I am fully aware that our good City Fathers must collect enough money in some way to pay the running expenses of the city, as well as lay aside something to meet the interest on all debentures now outstanding when they come due. Now, I believe, we must figure out some better way than the present one to raise this money. I also believe a good way out of it all is for the city, at the next election, to put a by-law before the people asking for power to enable them to borrow enough money to pay off all the debentures which were sold since, say, January, 1912, to pay for all street paving and expropriation for widening of streets only, and let the whole city pay two or three mills more to meet the interest and sinking fund of the new debentures sold. If this was done, we would only have the general tax, sidewalk, boulevard, cluster lights, etc., to pay, which would not be very much. The result would be nearly every one would pay their taxes, and Victoria would immediately be put on the map again. It would mean the city could easily sell the property that was in arrears of taxes. It would enable the property owners to erect a building of some kind on their property that would bring in enough revenue to repay this small tax, and it would mean that the city would very shortly have a sufficient amount of revenue to meet all expenses with.

I may just say that if we borrow money in the way I speak of, every dollar must be paid back to everyone who has paid local improvement and expropriation charges since January, 1912, less any amount that is owing to the city for taxes in arrears. This idea, if carried out, would, without a doubt, give the city plenty of money and save this awful 15% interest item they are about to charge all property owners in arrears of taxes after November 30th.

I do not lay the blame on anyone for the condition of affairs today, as each and every property owner raised the price of his property during the boom, and we all asked and wanted paved streets, streets widened, cluster lights, boulevards, and the city made beautiful generally, which we got, and for which we are all proud.

There are many of our good citizens who hold mortgages on property long past due, and they have not foreclosed and taken the property away from the owners to any extent. These men are waiting and giving the mortgagors time to try to pay up, and the mortgagees realize the conditions after these last five years' hard struggle. I want to give these men great credit for being so patient, and can only say they are true citizens in treating others as they would like to be treated.

But the city has not been so lenient. On the other hand, they have loaded up large portions of our property with huge taxes, and this was brought about on account of the assessments not being equally and fairly placed, and they now confiscate the property, and the property owners are losing all they have invested for many years past. This, without a doubt, is unfair, and absolutely wrong.

Why not borrow money as I suggest above, and let everyone pay alike? This we should do, as every person uses our paved streets, our cluster lights, etc. It is a great mistake for the property owners on Douglas, Pandora and other streets to have to lose all of the money they have invested in order to have a nice, wide street, paved, for all our good citizens to motor over and use for all general purposes.

If anyone will inquire at the City Hall and find out the amount of taxes in arrears, the amount of the city's indebtedness, and the amount of our assets, I believe they will be very much interested in endeavoring to suggest something that may assist our City Fathers in this matter. I sincerely believe it is up to us all to be good citizens, good sports, and realize our position, help each other, work hand in hand, and we will all reap the same benefit and greatly profit thereby.

I would like to have the opinion of other citizens on this matter.

JAS. A. GRIFFITH.

Speeding Motorists

Sir,—I will feel most grateful to you if you would spare me a little space in your paper. I have seen and read of motor speeding, but I think the limit has been reached when I open the paper and read an account of a motorist knocking down a man and never stopping. I honestly think that it is high time that the authorities in this city woke up to the facts of what is going on. If these motor fiends are allowed to go on unchecked it will not be safe for anyone except themselves to go abroad. There are people in power in this city who can sit in solemn conclave about skinning dogs and that sort of trash. Let me tell them right here that they would be doing more good to the community in general if they talked about skinning murdering motorists. Dogs are doing no harm. Speeding motorists are, and you can't get away from that fact.

I wish to say right here that this is not the first case I have heard of, not by a long way. If I were seen breaking into a person's house I would pretty soon get pinched and get a stiff sentence into the bargain, yet speeding motorists appear to go on careening about the streets unmolested. My! I wish I were a judge and had some of these fiends before me. I would mete them out such a sentence that would make their hair stand on end. A man who drives a motor at a speed which is endangering the safety of others is a fiend, but a man who will knock a man down and never stop is mean, down-down murderer, aye, worse than a murderer, for a murderer takes the trouble to see that his victim is dead before he goes on. Evidently this other kind don't; he leaves it to chance. His victim may be picked up by a good Samaritan and taken to the hospital, or he may die a lingering death. He must take his chance whatever happens. I ask you, is this sort of thing going to be allowed to continue? Will not you people in Victoria arise in a body and join in my protest and say it must cease? I appeal to your sense of humanity.

W. E. PERRY.

Fisgard Street

Sir,—I see by the press of November 18 that a petition was sent to the City Council from 34 residents obecting to the name of Fisgard "not being an appropriate name for a residential street." This name was given by our pioneers in the H.B. Co., and was named after H.M. frigate Fisgard, 42 guns, built in 1819. Capt. John Duntze was on this station 1844-1847. When the survey of Esquimalt Harbor was made by Lieut.-Commander Wood, H.M. surveying vessel Pandora, the points and islands, etc., in the harbor were named after the captain and officers of the Fisgard. The rock lying in the harbor entrance, close off Fisgard lighthouse was found by H.M.S. Bacchante, flagship of Sir James Maitland, striking on it while entering Esquimalt, July, 1862. Then why change the tradition and place names of our City just because a few law-abiding citizens, but not of our race, happen to have their stores and dwellings on this street?

MARGT. LEIGHTON McMICKING.

The Alandale, Linden Avenue, Victoria, B.C., Nov. 18, 1919.

The City Council

Sir,—The meetings of this body, whilst far from being instructive or dignified, have the merit of at least being amusing. The unique sights of the "most potent, grave and reverend seignors" being engaged in a wordy warfare and exchanging questionable compliments is not edifying nor conducive either to the popularity of the combatants nor to the welfare of the City and can only lead to ridicule.

What matter if all the so-called plans for the improvement of the waste ground in question were stolen or destroyed? Do these worthy gentlemen imagine the idea of a baseball ground would ever be tolerated by a discriminating public?

It must occur, even to the most limited intelligence, that a question such as the one alluded to, involving high ideals, can only be settled to the satisfaction of the public by qualified persons. In any case has the City a superabundance of funds, sufficient to carry out any scheme, or is it simply pre-election camouflage?

The ship General Wrightson rode out the gale of Saturday last. The anchors, we understand, dragged, and the vessel drifted to within seven yards of the rocks, when the anchors took firm hold, and the ship was saved.

Discharged—G. Dodt, a halfbreed, who has been in custody for some days on a charge of shooting an Indian, was yesterday discharged for want of sufficient evidence.

Retired—Mr. Mathew Rowland has withdrawn from the canvass for the district east and casts his influence in favor of Mr. Love.

JEWS IN EUROPE NEED ASSISTANCE

Men of Race in Canada Seek to Free Dependents and Friends Who Are Persecuted in Several Countries.

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—The Jewish citizens of Montreal are making preparations for a big demonstration on November 24, which will take the form of a parade through the streets of Montreal in order to protest against the anti-Jewish disorders in the Ukraine, and to secure popular sympathy for the sufferers.

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—A large delegation from the Canadian Jewish Congress waited upon the Government yesterday afternoon, to make representations with regard to the serious condition of relatives and dependents in Roumania and Poland. A delegation, which was led by Mr. Lyon Cohen, of Montreal, and introduced by S. W. Jacobs, M.P., Montreal, was received by Hon. C. J. Doherty, Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance; Hon. Martin Burrell and Gen. Mewburn. It was urged on the Government that these dependents and relatives of Jews now in Canada were exposed to persecution in Roumania and Poland, and the request was made that the Government give credentials to a committee, which would consist of three men named by the Canadian Jewish Congress, which also would meet their expenses, to go to these countries and seek out the dependents in question.

The delegation also asked that when these relatives and dependents were found the Government should on being satisfied that they may meet the requirements of the laws grant permits which would enable them to leave the countries in which they are at present. It was represented that the countries where they now are will not allow them to emigrate without such a permit.

Exchange Breaks Again

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Foreign exchange again dropped to new low levels in the local market today. Sterling brought $3.99⅛, which is 1¼ cents below yesterday's lowest quotation. Franc cheques were quoted at 9.79 for the dollar, five centimes below yesterday's prices, while lire cheques sold at 12.57, off 13 centimes.

LIQUOR RELEASED IN OLD COUNTRY

Government Frees Great Quantity From War Time Restriction—Canadians Buy Heavily From British Dealers.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—One hundred and fifteen million gallons of whiskey and a quantity of other spirits in bond in Great Britain were released from wartime restrictions yesterday.

Announcement of the removal of the restrictions came as a surprise to the members of the House of Commons, who greeted it with loud cheers.

The liquor trade was equally surprised, and was beseiged by purchasers as soon as the news spread.

Although it is figured that the quantities of spirits thus freed would supply each man, woman and child in the country with thirty-six bottles, it is doubtful if the public will find it easy at present to increase consumption to a great extent.

The Government maintains control of the maximum price, which for whiskey is ten shillings and sixpence a bottle.

There has been an astonishing rush for whiskey both by traders and private customers as a consequence of the withdrawal by the Government of restrictions on distribution.

Canada was brought into the question by the managing director of a well-known firm of distillers, who said that it was remarkable that, though Canada was largely dry, his firm was shipping more spirits there than in wet times, and recently Canadian agents had requested that stoppers be substituted for corks, as corkscrews are now difficult to obtain.

TELLS EASTERNERS OF WESTERN WEALTH

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—L. A. Guertin of Vancouver, B.C., was the speaker of the afternoon at yesterday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Guertin's plea was for the closer development of trade relations between the Province of his birth and the one which he had chosen for his life's work. He pointed to the fact that the United States controls nearly all of the Western trade, the possibilities of which, he said, apparently have been overlooked by the Eastern part of Canada.

He spoke at some length of the natural resources of the West, particularly those of British Columbia.

He deplored the fact that in the capitalization of various promising industries of his adopted Province, Eastern Canada, and particularly Quebec, holding the metropolis of the country, has not taken the initiative, but has left it to interests in the United States.

The speaker suggested an excursion to the West coast cities by members of the Chamber of Commerce, assuring his audience of a rousing welcome in Vancouver.

NO SUPPLY OF COAL AVAILABLE IN EAST

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—Little hope is held out to consumers of coal by Fuel Administrator Magrath in his messages from Washington. So far it is stated he has been unable to secure from the United States Railroad Administration the release of any supplies of coal for Canadian consumption, but he is continuing his efforts at Washington.

In the meantime the strictest economy is urged upon Canadians. It is expected that Mr. Magrath will have a conference with Hon. N. W. Rowell and Hon. G. D. Robertson during the next day or two, when the whole matter of Canadian coal supply will be discussed and future action outlined.

Both of these ministers are now in Washington attending the international labor conference, and at the same time seeking to secure relief for Canada in the matter of coal supplies.

ACQUITTED BECAUSE OF UNWRITTEN LAW

WINNIPEG, Nov. 20.—Rather an unusual ending came to a charge of attempted murder in the assize court today. John Lennox, a farmer near Stonewall, Man., and a former member of the R.N.W.M.P., faced the court on allegation of shooting with intent to kill, his hired man, H. J. Ward.

Lennox told his story of the connections of the hired man with his wife so appealingly and pleaded the unwritten law so well that he was found not guilty.

Mr. Justice Galt told him that he was glad that they had returned this verdict, congratulated the twelve men who went into the hall, shook hands with the accused, and warmly sympathized with him.

Vancouver's Loan Total

VANCOUVER, Nov. 20.—Final returns for the Victory Loan drive in Vancouver city show the total amount subscribed to be $14,695,700, representing approximately 26,350 applications. Last year the total for the city was $15,200,000.

REPLY TO MR. CRERAR ON TARIFF QUESTION

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—The Mail and Empire, editorially, today replies to the statements of Hon. T. A. Crerar, at Brandon, on "Protection." The editorial says:

"Mr. Crerar says that in Ontario, the finest agricultural Province in Canada, protection has driven people off the land into the cities. Then was it protection that drove the people off the land in Britain into the cities? Was it protection that drove them in hundreds of thousands every year out of the United Kingdom to find work and opportunity in countries that have protection?

"Was it protection that drove young farmers from Ontario to settle the West, where Mr. Crerar himself is flourishing?

"Public men who make speeches are expected to satisfy the intelligence of their hearers. Anybody can say that protection is a curse, but it is another thing to establish the proposition. Mr. Crerar is a strong advocate of free trade, and, therefore, has no use for protection.

"A public man ought to feel bound to produce convincing evidence in support of such strong statements. There was no protection in England to account for the drift of population from the rural districts to the towns, a drift as pronounced as ever it was here. The movement of the people from Ontario farms to the prairies was as decided in its time as ever the movement from Ontario farms to Ontario towns. How could the one be attributed to protection and the other not, the tariff being fairly constant?"

SERBIANS MAY CLASH WITH D'ANNUNZIO

PARIS, Nov. 20.—The fact that Serbian demobilization has stopped was confirmed today by the Serbian peace delegation, where great disappointment was expressed at the failure of the Supreme Council to settle the Adriatic question. This is said to hold in suspense the economic and political policy of the Serbian Government.

The delegation said the people of Serbia had reached the limits of patience, and that public opinion might force the Government to take whatever measures might prove necessary should another D'Annunzio raid be attempted along the Dalmatian coast.

Flour Prices in U.S.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—To prove that rumors concerning flour scarcity and advancing prices are baseless, the United States Grain Corporation announced that it would enable consumers to buy the best flour at lower prices. Flour of the finest wheat will be sold to the retail trade in 12½ and 24½ pound packages in about three weeks. The price to the consumer would be about 75 cents for the small packages.

No Election This Year

NELSON, B.C., Nov. 20.—"The Government has no thought of an election this year," stated Hon. J. W. De B. Farris at a Board of Trade luncheon tendered to him, Hon. G. H. King and R. F. Green, M.P., for West Kootenay.

Proportional Representation — A meeting of those interested in the subject has been called to take place in the Council Chamber this evening for the purpose of initiating steps to secure the adoption of proportional representation in Victoria, and the surrounding municipalities, as provided for in the Municipal Proportional Representation Act of British Columbia.

Friendship Club Dance — The Friendship Club held its first dance of the season in the K. of P. Hall on Wednesday evening in the form of a masquerade. About seventy-five couples were present, and the committee were assured that everyone had a good time, dancing from 9 to 1, the music being supplied by Mr. Zala's three-piece orchestra. Refreshments were served at 11 p.m. by a capable staff of young ladies.

Says He Was Robbed—Complaint was made to the police yesterday by Edward M. Anderson, a recent arrival in the City from Nootka, that he was robbed some time on Wednesday night of $130. He admitted he had been drinking and was unable to give any description of any of those with whom he had been celebrating. He imputed his condition to near beer, and he suggested that anyone who called the concociton he drank by that name was a mighty poor judge of distance.

Arrange Series of Dances—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Army and Navy Veterans has arranged a series of dances to take place all through the coming season, the first to be held at the Carter's Hall next Thursday. At a meeting presided over by Mrs. Richdale last Tuesday it was decided to hold a bazaar the third week in December at the rooms of the Victoria Club, in the Campbell Building. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Hodgins for the success of the silver tea held at the Army and Navy Veterans' rooms on November 5 last.

Will Fix Road—A letter was read at the Oak Bay Council meeting last night, from the Island Automobile Association, asking that Sunrise Avenue be opened right through to King George's Terrace around Gonzales Hill. A grant was made for this work in the estimates passed this year, and the work will be proceeded with as soon as the engineer can get the material he desires. He expects to have the highway ready by Spring. The road in question has been graded throughout its length, but proved rough driving in Summer and impassable in Winter.

Social Welfare Commission—It is not expected that the sessions of the Social Welfare Commissoin, announcement of the appointment of which has just been made by Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary, will commence until early in December. The members of the commission held a brief session yesterday morning at the Parliament Buildings for the purpose of preliminary organization. The sittings will be held in the interior portion of the Province first and a tentative itinerary was arranged. Notice to various public bodies, representations from which are desired on the various matters to be dealt with by the commission, will be immediately issued.

Skating Club Meet—The Victoria Skating Club, just recently organized, will meet for the first time at the rink on Monday evening at 5 o'clock. Tea arrangements are being planned, and it is hoped that all intending members will attend as early as possible in order that some indication may be given as to the number who purpose availing themselves of the facilities for the future. As the membership list is now nearly filled up it has been decided that no applications received by the secretary, 113 Pemberton Building, later than Saturday morning can be considered. Music is to be provided for the skaters, and with the full co-operation of the members of the club the organization should prove thoroughly successful.

Canadian Overseas Mechanics' Club—The regular monthly meeting of the club will be held in Labor Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

Divorce Granted—In the Supreme Court on Wednesday Mr. Justice Murphy granted a decree absolute in the divorce action of Williams vs. Williams, in which the husband was the petitioner.

Appointment Gazetted—Formal announcement of the appointment of Dr. E. C. Arthur, of Nelson, to the position of Hospital Inspector and Travelling Medical Officer, is contained in the current week's Provincial Gazette.

Lady Alderson Chapter—The Lady Alderson Chapter, I.O.D.E., will meet this afternoon at 2:30 at the headquarters of the I.O.D.E., Jones Building. All members are asked to attend, as important business is to come up.

Case Dismissed—Mr. Justice Murphy has dismissed the action of Newcombe vs. Neary. The action was on a covenant in agreement of sale, and in the alternative foreclosure. In the action in the County Court Meyers vs. the Cholberg Company, judgment was given for the plaintiff yesterday, after the claim had been revised.

Girls' Corner Club—The Girls' Corner Club last night gathered to hear the Rev. Mr. Inkster give an address on "The Holy Spirit" at the Odd Fellows' Hall on Douglas Street. The Rev. and Mrs. Inkster were the guests of the evening. Some sixty-five members were present in spite of the inclement weather, and enjoyed the proceedings, which ended with a dainty supper. Hymns were sung at the opening of the meeting and a collection taken for the Zenana Mission.

Lots for Sale—A number of applications for the purchase of properties from the municipality were received by the Oak Bay Council last night. The lots in question are among those that have reverted to the municipality through tax sales. Acting on a resolution put by Councillor Macfarlane last night, a list of the properties for sale will be posted on the notice board and advertised through the press just as soon as the value of the various parcels has been set by the Council, which is now working on the matter. A number of upset prices have already been decided, and these will be posted at once.

An Exceptional Offer—Don't Miss It

DEMAND CONTROL OVER BATHHOUSE

Oak Bay Council and Delegation Disagree Over Right of Municipality to Interfere With New Project.

A verbal tilt between lawyers enlivened the usually dull atmosphere of the Oak Bay Council when that body met last evening. A deputation of seven waited upon the municipal representatives to get their approval of a foreshore lease which the Government is now considering in connection with the establishment of a swimming bath at Oak Bay. The lease was presented for the signature of the Provincial Government which responded that the approval of the municipality would have to be obtained, as it was the owner of the land on which the foreshore in question abutted.

Speaking for the Council, Reeve W. Charles Wilson stated to the deputation last night that there would have to be a clause in the lease giving the municipality supervision over the plans and specifications, and also over the regulations under which the bathhouse was operated. Mr. H. W. Herchmer, the well-known lawyer, spoke for the deputation, and there followed extensive argument and quick repartee on both sides, a most friendly feeling prevailing throughout.

Mr. Herchmer explained that the men behind the bathhouse scheme were ready to incorporate as soon as the lease was signed. Reeve Wilson explained that it was desired to place in the lease clauses calling for the approval of the Council on plans, specifications and regulations, this approval not to be withheld under reasonable circumstances. This was desirable as the company operating the bathhouse might at some time get into the hands of people that did not have the interests of Oak Bay at heart. Mr. Herchmer retorted that if the Council wanted control it could buy fifty-one per cent of the stock. He added that his clients were willing to give special privileges to the children of Oak Bay, but were against the proposal to have the plans and specifications endorsed by the Council before being used. He was afraid the Council might put obstacles in the way. The artistic education of the municipal engineer might not coincide with that of the bathhouse concern's designer, with the result that they "would be up a tree."

As They Should Be

The Reeve responded that if things were thus that was just the place they ought to be. Mr. Herchmer claimed that the decision of the Council might not be the will of the majority of the people in the municipality. Back came the Reeve with the statement that the Council was representing the people, and that the bathhouse men were not. He pointed out that the company might become insolvent and the bathhouse sold to the highest bidder, who might not work for the good of the municipality. The retort was made that the Council could have first option in such a case. The Reeve replied that the municipality had no wish to go into the bathhouse business.

Mr. Herchmer said that he could not sell stock to the public with restrictions in force such as the Council asked for. It would be all right in a private company, and that was what he wished to form, but the stockholders were restricted to fifty, which was too few to raise the necessary capital.

Councillor MacFarlane backed up Reeve Wilson in his stand, stating that the Council should have control over an institution of a semi-public nature as the bathhouse would be. He thought it would be a good thing to have a municipality representative on the board of directors. The spokesman for the delegation pointed out that the place on the board of directors could be obtained by the payment of the proper sum. He receded from his stand against the supervision of plans and specifications, but still held out against further control.

Supervision of Health Matters

After further argument Mr. Herchmer said the Council could have control over the bathhouse in matters pertaining to health.

In giving possible bad effects of non-supervision over the regulations, the Reeve said that perhaps the bathhouse would be kept open on Sundays, and this might not be liked by the Oak Bay people. Mr. Herchmer replied that he could not see why a man should not take a swim if he wished on Sundays. The Reeve then turned the matter the other way, asking what the situation would be if the bathhouse was closed on Sundays.

A whispered consultation here took place among the members of the delegation, and Mr. Herchmer then made the statement that they were willing to come within the jurisdiction of all the bylaws of the municipality with the exception of those referring to taxation. As it was getting late it was decided to hold another Council meeting this evening to settle the matter, the delegation to come to a decision in the meantime as to whether it would accept the Council's request for control over the bathhouse. The various members of the Council expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the building of the bathhouse. It is hoped to have the structure ready for use next Spring.

NATIVE SONS' DANCE BEING HELD TONIGHT

Post No. 1, Victoria, Holding Function This Evening at Alexandra Ballroom, Preliminary to Bigger Event.

Leading up to their grand annual ball in January, the Native Sons of British Columbia, Post No. 1, Victoria, tonight, at Alexandra House, are holding a dance which will be something by way of forerunner of the more brilliant event to follow in a few weeks' time.

A committee has been working for the past week on the arrangements, and there has been a big demand for tickets. At least two hundred and fifty people are expected, and those in charge promise the very best of dancing, music (to be furnished by Watson Brothers' orchestra), supper, and generally wholesome fun. Dancing will commence at nine o'clock, and will continue until one in the morning.

Dress is to be informal. Tickets are on sale at Fletcher Bros.' Music Store, Government Street.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Minister at Convention—Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education, went over to the Mainland last evening, and today he will attend the eighth annual convention of the Fraser Valley Teachers' Association which will open its sessions at Mission City. The Minister will speak to the convention on the work of the Department of Education.

At K. of C. Hut—The weekly five hundred drive and dance will be held tonight at the K. of C. Hut, Fort Street, commencing at 8 o'clock. As usual, admission will be free to all service, ex-service men and their lady friends. Mr. M. Steele will take charge of the military five hundred, which will be followed by dancing until midnight.

Tickets For Pankhurst Lecture—Tickets for the lecture to be given on November 27, by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst at the Empress Hotel under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club, will be placed on sale this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Fletcher's music store, Government Street. Much interest is being displayed in the forthcoming event and there will undoubtedly be a big demand for tickets.

Municipal Reform — Under the auspices of the Women's Independent Political Association there will be an open meeting this afternoon at the Victoria Club, Campbell Building, when matters of municipal reform will be discussed. The affair is being held in connection with a "silver tea," and the discussions will be quite informal. A musical programme is to be given, and it is expected and hoped that all women to whom the topic under discussion is of interest will attend, this notice being given by way of invitation.

Bank Clearings—The steady growth of business in Victoria is shown very forcibly in the amount of the bank clearances for the week ended yesterday, as compared with the corresponding period a year ago, particularly when it is borne in mind that last year both the Foundation and the Cholberg shipyards were in full operation, whereas both have now been closed down practically for some weeks. The clearings this year amounted to the sum of $4,142,005 and last year the amount was $2,033,808.

Maintains Jurisdiction — Premier Oliver stated yesterday that when the Board of Railway Commissioners meets at Vancouver, Attorney General Farris will be present, backed by the full legal machinery of the Province to challenge the jurisdiction of the Board over the B. C. Electric Railway, jurisdiction recently conferred upon the Board by order-in-council which declared the electric company's undertakings to be for the general advantage of Canada. The Attorney-General will press the Province's legal status.

Provincial Appointments—Provincial appointments are announced in the current week's Provincial Gazette as follows: Notaries Public, Messrs. Albert E. Thompson and William B. Allen, of Victoria, and Mr. Warwick A. Woodward, of Vancouver. Dr. William Reinhard, of New Massett, is named Medical Officer of Health for Bella Coola; Major Henry Clarkson, of New Westminster, is appointed official administrators for the New Westminster County Court District in the place of Major Charles George, resigned; Mr. Charles W. Long, of Powell River, has been appointed issuer of marriage licenses, and Government Agent J. S. Alexander, of Ashcroft, Registrar of Voters for the Yale electoral district. Mr. G. H. Mabon is appointed Registrar of Voters for the Victoria City and Esquimalt Electoral Districts.

QUESTION OF CRIME IN SELLING LIQUOR

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 20.—Is selling liquor legally a crime, and can a man be sent to jail upon summary conviction for this offense? This was the point at issue in a case heard today before the court of appeal. J. A. Russell, counsel for the appellant, Gus Dahlin, contended that the province had not the right to provide procedure which sent a man to jail when the British North America Act said that all questions of criminal law and criminal procedure should remain exclusively within the jurisdiction of the Federal parliament.

Dahlin was convicted in the police court of selling liquor, and sentenced to six months' imprisonment. The case was appealed, and Judge H. S. Cayley in the county court reserved the points at issue, which were carried to the appeal court.

The case will be continued Friday morning.

WET SPELL DEPENDS ON SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—While the Supreme Court was hearing arguments today on the validity of the war-time prohibition act, word went out from the White House that President Wilson would not rescind the "dry" act until peace formally had been declared.

This was expected to set at rest the rumors that the "dry" ban would be lifted by the President irrespective of early ratification of the treaty. Failure of the Senate to act on the treaty at the extraordinary session was regarded by many administration officials as precluding the ending of the technical state of war much before the constitutional amendment becomes effective next January 16. Should such prove the case, the only possibility of a "wet" Christmas would be for the supreme court to declare the war-time act unconstitutional.

Arguments on the pending cases will be concluded tomorrow, but as the court begins a recess on Monday no decision is expected until it is reconvened on December 8.

Taming My Husband

By Kathleen Fox

LXII.—THE WEARING OF A GOWN

Apparently convinced that his reason for quarrelling with me was of little importance, he sought a bigger one.

"You looked like the mischief tonight," he said, ungraciously. "All the other ladies were in evening dress, but you had to appear with that confounded thing on!"

My face flushed as his words reminded me of what I had worn. I had chosen, for a very good reason, a semi-decollette gown with sleeves that came just below the elbows. It was a pretty filmy thing, brand new, and I had been quite sure when I dressed that I looked all right. Most certainly I should not have thought that I looked like the mischief.

"Oh, weren't you satisfied with my appearance?" I retorted. "What a pity!" I was sarcastic as I meant to be. Any woman would have said that.

Crittenden's face wrinkled in suppressed fury at my answer. I am sure that, had he known what more I could say, he would have been willing, regardless of his warlike frame of mind, to leave the field to me. But he was unwarned and unarmed. He rushed into a debacle.

"No, I was not, and be careful what you say, young woman," he said, threateningly. "I was nothing less than humiliated by your dress. It was outrageous."

"Surely not so bad as all that, my dear," I returned, sweetly. "Besides, if you must know, you are responsible for what I wore, you alone. You are to blame if I looked like the mischief as you say."

He peered at me beneath his lowering brows. But I was unabashed.

"Your humiliation is on your own head, sir," I continued. "The outrage I can lay at your own door!"

"Do you mean—" He stopped, his face very stern. "You'd try to say, I suppose, that you haven't sufficient clothes to wear. I know better than that, and you needn't try to hide behind such a flimsy excuse."

"Oh, no, that wasn't it," I replied, evenly, knowing that control of the situation was in my hands. "But I repeat it was your fault, every bit of it."

Crittenden's face was a clear indicator of his puzzled frame of mind. He looked at me searchingly as though he would read the answer in my eyes. And when Crittenden is puzzled, as a rule, he is apt to be cautious. But tonight his temper had the upper hand. He was powerless to resist its impulse. He drove on, blindly.

"I demand that you explain yourself," he said hotly, bending forward menacingly. His attitude suggested that he would force me by violence to do what he asked.

"The explanation need not be difficult, even to you," I replied. "Can't you remember anything at all that might have been good reason for me wearing this gown—this 'outrageous' garment?"

Once more the puzzled expression spread over his face, crept into his eyes. He was thinking hard but could not get the answer.

"I can not!" he exclaimed.

I stood with my arms folded, leaning against the dressing table. I was calm, perfectly at ease regardless of his threatening attitude. I turned over in my mind the elements of the situation, enjoying in anticipation Crittenden's utter rout when I chose to let loose the full force of my unanswerable, unassailable argument.

And then, remembering another occasion similar to this one when he had learned something to his sorrow and remorse, I wondered if I should protect him from it. At the moment, loving him as I did although he was ruthless, I wavered, inclining toward silence to give him the shelter he did not deserve.

But, no, he would not let me protect him.

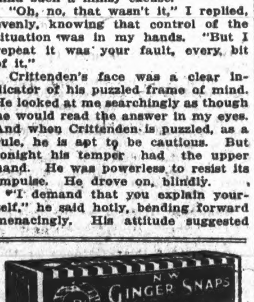

"I'll make you tell—you've got to explain," he growled, and started toward me, his hands in front of him and opening and shutting.

I measured him up and down, coolly. Now, indeed, I could tell him, all thought of saving him gone from my mind.

"No need to use force, my dear Crittenden," I remarked. "This is the reason why I did not wear a sleeveless evening gown."

Then I rolled up the sleeve above the elbow, exposing to his view the bruised flesh where his own fingers had clutched and all but torn it. Without another word to him, I went to bed.

WAS WAR PRISONER BUT IS NOW HOME

Lieut. W. A. B. Paul, Who Left With 30th Battalion in 1915, Is Back in Victoria After Nearly Five Years' Absence.

Lieut. W. A. B. Paul, together with his wife and infant child, arrived back in Victoria from England on Wednesday. Lieut. Paul joined the Canadian forces on the outbreak of the war, and left Victoria with the 30th Battalion in February, 1915. After serving for some time in France he was given a commission in the Imperial Forces. Twice he was wounded, on the second occasion, in 1917, being taken prisoner, and it was not until 1918 that he was repatriated from Germany, subsequently receiving his discharge from the army as permanently unfit.

Mrs. Paul, formerly Miss R. A. Thomas, of Victoria, went overseas during the war to offer her services as a V.A.D., and served in this capacity in St. Thomas Hospital, London, for a considerable period.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Homer Dixon has arrived in the City for a short stay and is living at the Empress Hotel.

Mrs. Hugh Macdonald left on Wednesday afternoon for Vancouver, en route for England, where she will make an extended visit.

Dr. S. F. Plaskett, Director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, Victoria, has returned from a short holiday spent with relatives in Okanagan Valley.

On Wednesday afternoon at Government House, Lady Barnard entertained the cadets of the Royal Naval College at Esquimalt at a delightful tea dance, to which Commander and Mrs. Nixon and the other members of the staff and their wives had been invited as well as a large number of the girl friends of the cadets. A delightful time was spent, the dancers enjoying the programme of up-to-date music furnished by Heaton's orchestra. Mrs. Herman Robertson assisted Lady Barnard in entertaining the young people. Tea was served in the dining room at 5 o'clock, when His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor appeared on the scene and welcomed the guests.

Lady Jellicoe and Mrs. George Black, F.R.G.S., wife of the ex-Governor of the Yukon, were honored guests at a reception given by the Vancouver Women's Canadian Club on Tuesday afternoon at the Hotel Vancouver. Other guests of honor included Mrs. Roper, of the Women's Canadian Club in Seattle; Miss Leitch, provincial president of the King's Daughters, and Mrs. Neuroutsos, educational secretary of the Navy League for British Columbia. Lady Jellicoe was made a life member of the Club and presented with a beautiful bouquet of crysanthemums, and Mrs. Black, who gave an interesting account of her war work in England and France, was also the recipient of a bouquet of roses.

Among those who have entertained Admiral Viscount and Lady Jellicoe during their visit to Vancouver have been Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bushnell, the former being a connection of the distinguished admiral's family. On account of Lady Jellicoe's bereavement social functions in her honor have been curtailed.

Face Was Badly Disfigured. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

"Small red pimples and blackheads began on my face, and my face was badly disfigured. Some of the pimples festered while others scaled over and there were places where the pimples were in blotches. They used to itch and burn terribly.

"I saw an advertisement for Cuticura and I tried them. They stopped the itching and burning and I used four cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment which healed me." (Signed) Miss V. A. Hayne, Stormont, N. S., Dec. 26, '18.

CHARMING WEDDING AT CHRIST CHURCH

Nuptials of Mrs. Delia Bodwell and Captain Cator, M.C., Celebrated in Presence of Few Intimate Friends.

Charming in the simplicity of its arrangements was the service quietly solemnized at Christ Church Cathedral yesterday at noon, which united in marriage Mrs. Delia Bodwell, of this city, and Captain Christopher A. Cator, M.C., of Vancouver, son of the late Mr. Albemarle Cator, of Woodbastick Hall, Norfolk, England. The Right Rev. Bishop of Columbia performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by about fifty intimate friends of the bride and groom. The church was beautifully decorated for the wedding, masses of pale pink chrysanthemums covering the chancel rails, while pale yellow and white blooms were used most effectively on the altar.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. A. T. Goward, wore a handsome one-piece frock of black panne velvet and satin, heavily embroidered in gold thread. Pointed fox furs, a smart hat of black panne velvet and a corsage bouquet of violets completed a very charming toilette. The groom, who wore mufti, was supported by Major Ivan Gwynne, of Vancouver. The ushers were Major Humphreys and Captain Carew Martin.

Among those who attended the ceremony at the church were Lady Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, Mrs. R. H. Pooley, Mrs. Herman Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Goward, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. W. F. Brougham, of Vancouver, Col. and Mrs. B. M. Humble, Major and Mrs. John Hope, Major and Mrs. Selden Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bowser, Miss Eleanor Dunsmuir, the Misses Inez and Brownie Bodwell, daughters of the bride, and Mrs. Stevenson.

After the ceremony, the bridal party and a few intimate friends returned to the home of the bride on Rockland Avenue, where a dejeuner was served. Captain and Mrs. Cator left on the afternoon boat for New York, whence they will sail via the ss. Adriatic for England. They expect to return next April and will make their home in Vancouver.

HER DAUGHTER WAS SAVED FROM OPERATION

Mrs. Wells of Petersburg Tells How.

Petersburg, Va.—"For two years my daughter suffered from a weakness and pains in her right side; at times she was so bad she could not do any work. For two years she was attended by the best physicians here, and both agreed that she would have to be operated on. I suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and at first she refused to take it, but finally consented. From the very beginning it helped her, and now she is entirely well, and telling everybody how much good it has done her."—Mrs. W. D. Wells, 325 North Adams Street, Petersburg, Va.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Wells did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, sideache, dragging down pains, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

How Molly got her Raise

Although it was 5 o'clock the two other typists' desks were empty.

Molly knew there was a lot of work to be done. The office manager was back after a three days' absence, due to a cold. At twenty minutes after 5 he came out of his office and stopped at Molly's desk.

"Miss MacPherson, I've had 'phone calls fro... ...s Jameson and Miss Parker, ... are sick again with colds. I g... it's this weather."

It was a raw, foggy day and Molly didn't feel a bit like doing extra work. "They are always sick. I wish they would take care of themselves," she said to herself. But by working at a break-neck speed, she had her work finished a few minutes after 5 o'clock.

She took several letters in to the manager. When he had signed them he turned and said, "Miss MacPherson, we have decided that you are worth $5 a week more to the house. A girl on whom we can depend deserves an increase. You have not missed a day since we employed you. You seem to be immune from colds. I wish you would tell me the secret."

"There is no secret," she answered with an amused smile. "I had the beginning of several colds, but Weeks' Break-Up-A-Cold Tablets stopped them."

"All the cold tablets I ever tried made me feel dull and dopey," said the manager, surprised.

"But Weeks' are different." Molly explained. "They increase a person's cold resistance so that you fight off a cold naturally. That is why I always insist on Weeks'. They are only twenty-five cents a box and really are the best." Ad.

TO "SHIMMIE" OR NOT TO "SHIMMIE"

Ultra Modern Syncopated Jazz Dance Causes Storm in Vancouver Council, and a Threat to Close All Cabarets.

And now the city fathers of the Terminal City have set their faces against the cabaret in general and the "shimmy" dance in particular, as witness the following from The Vancouver Province of Tuesday's date:

The cabaret, that nocturnal syncopated institution spreading mushroom-like in Vancouver since the advent of prohibition, was submitted to a terrific oratorical onslaught at the hands of the aldermen on Monday afternoon. Alderman J. J. McRae, of Ward Six, with horrified references to the "shimmy dance," finally professed that the extent of his knowledge on the "shimmy" was that it was "something performed in connection with dancing."

While masticating a Victory Loan luncheon at a cabaret last week, the alderman was astounded to read a sign—"No Shimmying Allowed!" The sign drew the jocular remarks of a hundred Victory Loan salesmen—and was the starting point for the aldermanic search for knowledge.

Ald. McRae admitted in council yesterday that he sought in three places for a definition of "shimmy." He learned that it comprised an ultra modern dance contortion—and frankly stated to the council that a place where it was necessary to publicly display such a sign should immediately be closed upon general principles. Thrice also his thirst for knowledge led him in search of a definition of "cabaret."

Frankly and freely Ald. McRae admitted that he had never seen a cabaret in full working order. The jazz of the music, the popping corks of near beer bottles and the shuffling of terpsichorean addicts were thrills from which he had refrained.

"Step a Little"

With calm disdain also, the belligerent city dad ignored the suggestion of Ald. Joe Hoskin, who said that "it would be better if the aldermen stepped out a little, stayed out until 1 o'clock, and everything, in order to see Vancouver's nocturnal goings on—even if they had to shave off their moustaches once in a while to put on a Sherlock Holmes disguise."

"They say that Vancouver's cabarets are worse than the Klondike in its palmiest days," snorted Alderman Hoskin indignantly. "I want to tell you that in Dawson I've seen many a church member slip into a dance hall—to get warm, mind you!

"I've visited one of these here cabarets and didn't see anything wrong there either," insisted the alderman from the Fourth Ward. "It seems to me that young folks are young folks—and old folks are old folks. When the old folks get so old that they don't want to see the young ones have a good time—well, it's time for them to move out to South Vancouver. The cabaret is like other evils we have in Vancouver. It's like prohibition. We have prohibition in British Columbia—but very little of it in Vancouver."

Worse Than Saloons?

Returning to the attack, Alderman McRae asserted that the cabarets of the city had been painted to him in a "particularly dark light." Reliable citizens, men who walk the streets and frequent these places at late hours, he said, informed him that their sons were safer in the saloons of the "old days," he asserted.

Alderman Frank Woodside was quite scandalized. He supposed a cabaret was a nice, respectable place where one could get music with one's meals.

All this discussion occurred following Alderman McRae's fight to have the cabarets put out of business by December 1, with a summons to appear before the council for cancellation of licence where the rule was disobeyed.

"You can't do it," stated City Solicitor Jones, whose opinion as to power was solicited. The solicitor advised that so long as these places lived within the tenets of the Criminal Code the council could not revoke the licences.

On the recommendation of Commissioner Martyn, of the Provincial Department of Industry, the Provincial Government has authorized a grant of $15,000 to the Western Toy and Furniture Manufacturing Company, of Vancouver, a concern organized by returned men, who will conduct business on a co-operative basis. The men have contributed $14,500 in cash, and with the additional $15,000 will be in a position to put the business upon an adequate financial basis and start operations.

There are a number of schemes still before Commissioner Martyn, upon which he is securing information preparatory to presenting them to the Advisory Council of the Department at a meeting to be held on the 28th inst. A number of these propositions are from Victorians, nearly all of them new ideas, but one or two involving the granting of assistance to concerns now in operation, and the work of which could be extended were further financial provision available.

AMPHIBIOUS AIRCRAFT

Aero Seaplane Built by New Zealand Constructors, Proves Great Success

A type of aircraft that will rise from either land or water and be capable of landing again on water or an aerodrome, is the subject of an interesting announcement recently carried out. The amphibious machine has a very light set of wooden floats, specially constructed so as to be clear of the ground when the wheeled undercarriage is being used. The aero-seaplane has been tested and proved satisfactory in every particular, much credit being due to the New Zealand constructors of the ingenious device. The aircraft of this type might rightly be said to be a general service type, and good for all round work, either on land or at sea, while the facilities provided would enable the machine to be operated in a well-watered country like Canada to great advantage over the more conventional types of aircraft.

Denmark Wants Disarmament

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 20. — A strong plea for immediate disarmament, the abolition of conscription and dismantlement of the fortifications of Copenhagen, was made by Dr. Peter Munch, the Minister of Defence, in a speech on the budget in the parliament yesterday. He declared Denmark could not afford the expenditure. In addition, he said, the maintenance of present conditions would be contrary to the spirit of the League of Nations.

EARL BAIRD DRAWS WITH JIMMY DUNDEE

Seattle Boxer Lost a Win Verdict by Hairline Decision After Clean Contest and Some Fast Milling.

SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—Earl Baird came within a split hair of winning a decision over Jimmy Dundee, recognised as the coast's best 128-pounder, at the Elks Club tonight. After the two sturdy little millers had fought through a half-dozen slashing rounds in the B.P.O.E. main event, one judge voted Baird, the other a draw, and Referee Ad. Schacht called it even, which was how close the Seattle boy came to winning the verdict over the battler, who had to leave California because he could not get anybody else to meet him.

The bout was a dinger from the first round, and rivalled the Gorman-Dundee go for interest. Dundee used his dancing tactics to good advantage, hopping around the local boy, shooting in left hooks for points, but Baird met every exchange with hard rights, and in the first and fifth rounds staggered the flashy visitor with a series of right uppercuts which found their mark on Dundee's chin. The Californian continued on the offensive, however, and was battling strong at the finish. The boxers collided near the ropes in the final round and both sustained cuts over the eye, but neither let the matter worry him.

Baird had a clear lead in the in-fighting, while the southerner used his left to better advantage at long range. It was a clean battle, and the fans applauded Baird when he refused to take advantage of his opponent when Dundee got tangled up in the ropes. Baird helped the visitor out of the predicament before squaring off and renewing the struggle.

Referee Schacht gave Baird a two-round lead, but thought the bout was close enough to be called a draw, which decision pleased most of the big crowd.

HOCKEY APPEAL IS DISMISSED BY COURT

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—The Supreme Court yesterday dismissed the appeal of the Toronto Hockey Association versus the National Hockey Association and the several hockey clubs of which the latter body is composed.

The National Hockey Association was in 1917 composed of the appellants and the other respondents. In the Winter of that year the directors of the National Association met in Montreal, the appellant club not being represented, and passed a resolution providing that the appellants' franchise be suspended and sold before June 1, and that its players should be eligible to play with other clubs for the remainder of the season.

The courts below held that the action could not succeed and this appeal was dismissed on conclusion of argument for the appellants.

UNIVERSITY SCHOOL BEATS HIGH SCHOOL IN LEAGUE RUGBY

The intermediate Rugby match played on the University School ground between the University School and the Victoria High School resulted in a win for the home team by 9 points (3 tries) to nil. The winners had the better of the play all through, and were the aggressors practically all the time. The first of their tries was obtained in the first half of the game and the other two after half-time. Bickle was the most conspicuous player on the losers' side. The tries were scored by Shaw, Matthews and Pritchard. Mr. W. Moresby kindly refereed.

In the intermediate league the Royal Naval College now has four points to its credit, the University School two points and the High School nil.

COAST LEAGUERS ARE AFTER HIGHER PAY

Baseball Having Come Back Retrenchment Is No Longer Necessary They Claim

Holdouts in plenty will be on hand to worry the Pacific Coast League magnates when the high and mighty mogul gets down to talking business with ballplayers in 1920.

The Pacific Coast League made money this year—plenty of it. The ballplayers know this and being human are going to get all they can while the "getting" season is on.

Ballplayers' salaries were low this year in comparison to other seasons, but even at that were not so very low. They were told at the outset of the 1919 season that retrenchment was necessary if the game, then in its most uncertain stage, was to come back.

The game did come back and as a result almost every player in the league has a plea for more money ready when his 1920 contract is offered.

The first definite indication that the magnates have trouble on their hands comes from the South. When Johnny Powers signed Wade Killefer for another season the other day, the Angel leader got a substantial increase. During the season, Killefer worked for less money than some of his men under him. Every Angel is now after a boost in wages. Nor is the "insurrection" confined to the South. It confronts every owner in the league.

HOCKEY AMATEURS WORK OUT TONIGHT

Considerable interest is being taken in the activities of the amateur puck chasers this season and judging by the talent already in evidence, there should be a merry race for the City Championship.

All of the teams are now busy whipping their players into shape and when the season gets under way, the boys will be able to go through the full route at top speed. Secretary Percy Watson stated last evening that it was uncertain when the league would commence, but thought in all probability it would be about the middle of December. A meeting of the executive of the league would be held shortly to decide this and to draw up the schedule for the season.

All the teams that are entered in the senior league will be seen in action this evening at the Arena. The Great War Veterans will take the ice at 7 o'clock and invite other players to join their practice; they will be followed by the Two-Jacks Dope from 8-9. The Senators and the Pros. will perform from 9-10 and the Elks will wind up the evening from 10-11. There is no admission charged to watch the amateurs go through their paces and several hundred fans are in attendance at almost every practice.

SOOKE EXPERIENCES ATHLETIC REVIVAL

Association Reorganizes and Arranges for Much Activity During Winter—Will Affiliate With B. C. A. A. U.

A great revival of athletics is on hand at Sooke. The annual general meeting of the Sooke Athletic Association was held on Wednesday last when Major George Nicholson presided over a well attended meeting of forty young men and residents interested in sport.

The association is planning much activity for the coming Winter and already a basketball team and a football team are organized and practices commenced. The secretary, Mr. C. E. Morris, is anxious to hear from any City basketball team with a view to arranging games, and a real good evening's outing awaits the first town "five" to take up the challenge. The association has taken over Charter's Hall and is refitting it as a gymnasium and club room. It is its intention also to hold social evenings, dances, card drives, etc., during the Winter months, so that the ladies of the district will also be looked after.

The following officers were elected: Patron, Mr. R. H. Pooley, M.P.P.; Hon. President, Mr. J. C. McIntosh, M.P.; President, Major George Nicholson; Vice-Presidents, Messrs. P. Craigmile, W. Charters, J. Murray, J.P., D. Willis; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. C. E. Morris; executive committee, Messrs. T. Wright, J. Phillips, A. Wilson, J. Hughes, and B. Mugford. It was decided that the club affiliate with the B.C.A.A.U.

O'DOWD AND GIBBONS ARE READY FOR GONG

FEATHER CHAMPION SHOWS GREAT FORM

Frankie Fleming Pleases Montreal Fans by Real Comeback in Defeating Nick Michael in Ten-Round Bout.

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—Fighting with determination and aggressiveness never previously shown in a local ring, Frankie Fleming, Canadian featherweight champion, defeated Nick Michael, of New York, last night here in a ten-round bout. Fleming's effort was a real comeback. He never let up in his aggressive tactics and forced the fighting with the exception of the opening round, in which Michael outpointed him.

He cut loose in the second and from then on left little doubt as to the outcome of the encounter.

NEW DIRT TRACK RECORD IS MADE BY EDDIE HEARNE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 19.—Eddie Hearne, of Los Angeles, in the 100-mile automobile race at the Arizona State Fair grounds November 8, established a new record for a dirt track, according to word received today from R. Kennerdell, of New York, chairman of the American Automobile Association. Hearne's time was 89 minutes, 9 seconds. The previous record, according to Bullard, was held by Tom Allery, at Hamline, Minn., in 1914, 91 minutes, 30 seconds.

OAK BAY SOCCER

Monterey Strengthens Position in League Standing by Victory Over High School

In the Oak Bay Schools Athletic Association's soccer league an interesting game was played on Wednesday between Monterey and High School which resulted in a win for the former by one goal to nil, the result strengthening the position of the Monterey boys at the head of the competition.

The High School held the winners until well on in the second half when a misunderstanding between Todsen in goal and his backs let the Monterey forwards in. Miller at back for the winners played a fine game and to him the credit is due that no goals were scored by the High School. Today's matches are High School "A" vs. St. Michael's and Willows vs. Monterey.

WILDFOWL PLENTIFUL ALONG PUGET SOUND

Sportsmen Across the Line Making Good Bags of Ducks and Geese—B. C. Hunter Finds Luck Good.

SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—Vanguards of the northern flight of waterfowl are now providing sport for duck hunters along Puget Sound and inland lakes, according to advice received yesterday from the northern section of the state.

With favorable winds prevailing, hunters on the Skagit, Snohomish and La Conner flats are experiencing little difficulty in getting almost limit bags. Old hunters report that the season this year is proving one of the best in recent years, owing to favorable weather last Summer, which brought out large hatchings of waterfowl.

White swan, eider ducks and wood ducks were reported on the Skagit flats yesterday. The presence of the wood duck is a rarity, and owing to the scarcity of this species it is protected by law. White geese, honkers and brant are now flocking in large numbers to Puget Sound, and big bags of these birds are taken when stormy winds drive them in from the waters of the Sound to the marshes.

B. E. Stradley, of Milltown, a veteran nimrod, reports duck hunting as one-third improved this season ever last. Mallards and teal are predominating on the flats.

Hugh Mackenzie, assistant general passenger agent of the Pacific Steamship Company, bagged a collection of mallards and teal at Milltown this week, while Joe Stubbert, a British Columbia nimrod who is trying out the local duck grounds, had fine luck on the Skagit flats Wednesday.

TWO JACKS' BILLIARDS

In the Two Jacks Billiard League Sale's team met Hindle's team last night. Each team had a man short, so that another game has to be played before the result of the match is determined. The scores made last night were as follows:

Sale, 91	Hindle, 250
Harper, 250	Patten, 204
Holman, 250	J. Petch, 168
Lees, 190	Hall, 250

Patterson to play Smith.

The league match on Monday will be between the teams captained by Irish and Ashworth.

In the handicap tournament Creedon (r 50) beat Norton (scratch) somewhat easily by 47 points. Creedon will now play Hibberson for fifth and sixth places and Norton will play Hinson for seventh and eighth places.

The final will be played next Tuesday between Lovitt and Murray.

NO OPPONENTS ARE IN SIGHT FOR FULTON

Match With Joe Jeannette Off Owing to Latter's Demand for Too Much Coin—Fred Out of Luck.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Fred Fulton, the big fellow who has fought himself out of opponents in England, has encountered further bad luck. Fulton was to have been matched with Joe Jeannette for a battle in Paris, but Jeannette's demands were too much for the French promoter and the latter cancelled the match. Now that Joe Beckett and Georges Carpentier are tied up and the rest of the heavyweights in Europe have decided to pass him by, there is nothing for Fulton to do but return to America. While in England Fulton took part in bouts with Coghill, Townley and Curran, stopping them all without being called upon to show the full extent of his ability.

SPORT CANDIDATES ARE NOT NOMINATED

Aldermanic Aspirants Will Be Questioned as to Their Attitude on Athletics—Important Project for Grounds.

The meeting called on Wednesday by Harry Boyd of all sportsmen interested in getting more support from the city in the matter of fostering athletics here, with particular reference to the provision of more and better playing grounds, failed to support the idea of nominating "sport candidates" for the aldermanic elections next January, no nominations being made.

The best policy the meeting agreed on was to adopt the suggestion of George I. Warren, who advocated a questionnaire to parties nominated for the city elections to find out from them what their views were on the subject and how much active support could be expected from them by the sportsmen of the city. This idea was fully discussed and finally adopted, although the chairman of the meeting, Mr. P. C. Payne, stated that the idea had been already tried out without any satisfactory results. Mr. Payne recited the experiences of the committee which had interviewed the Mayor and Council on the matter of the improvement of cricket grounds and told a sorry tale of promises made and not fulfilled.

Mr. George I. Warren once more referred to the well-known crying need in Victoria for a salt water swimming bath. In recent years Victoria has come well to the front in the line of aquatic sport and yet is handicapped by still being without any adequate provision for the swimmers in the Winter months. Another attempt will be made to get some action in this matter and a committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Warren, Finnick, O'Brien, Baker and Aldrit to take up the campaign and urge consideration of this pressing necessity.

Important Project

Mr. F. J. O'Brien was on hand with a motion embodying a concrete plan for putting into effect the scheme for making an athletic ground at the back of the Empress Hotel, a project which has been mooted at fairly frequent intervals, but without any visible result. Mr. O'Brien was of the opinion that for financial reasons the City Council would not be willing to go ahead with the scheme as a municipal project, as it would be necessary to purchase the property, but he made the important announcement that the Foundation Organizations had agreed to find the necessary money, and the scheme in view was to have the ground under the management of a commission, of which the Mayor, an alderman and a representative of the organization would form the members.

Mr. O'Brien put the motion, which follows, and was carried by the meeting, and a committee was formed of himself with Messrs. P. C. Payne, George I. Warren and Arthur Manson to put the matter before the City Council with request for action along the lines of the proposal with as little delay as possible. The motion read:

"Resolved by representatives of different branches of athletic associations in the City of Victoria in meeting assembled:

"That a committee be appointed to wait upon the Mayor and the City Council and present a petition to the effect that the city property lying east of Douglas Street, north of Belleville Street, and west of Blanshard Street, described on the city maps as 2.54 acres, be set aside for the use of the different athletic bodies of this city free of general taxation for a term of at least twenty years, and

City to Prepare Ground

"Be it further resolved that our committee request that the clearing and levelling off of this property be done by the city engineer's office immediately, and that to be the only expense incurred by the city.

"And be it resolved, that the control and management of the grounds be in the hands of a commission consisting of the Mayor, a city alderman selected by the Mayor and all of the executive officers of some duly organized and responsible athletic organization that is prepared to carry on the expense of erecting grand stands, fences and other necessary details essential in building a first class athletic field.

"Be it resolved also, that we heartily endorse the attitude of His Worship Mayor Porter and certain aldermen who have given encouragement and aid to efforts to provide these grounds for amateur athletics.

"Be it resolved, that this committee be given full power to act in conjunction with City Council."

APPRENTICESHIPS WANTED FOR BOYS

British Campaigners' Association Asked to Formulate Scheme Whereby Sons of Soldiers Will Get Training.

The matter of the care of boys of ex-service men was brought once more to the attention of the British Campaigners at their regular meeting last night by Secretary W. J. Edwards, who asked if it were not time that some measures should be taken to help along the movement. It was decided to turn the question over to the Executive Committee, for them to formulate some scheme whereby apprenticeships should be secured in the dockyard and engineer workshops.

The meeting also discussed the matter of the Soldiers' Housing Scheme now before the City and it was resolved that the secretary be instructed to notify the Central Council of ex-service organizations that the Campaigners were of the opinion that steps should be taken to see that none but returned men should be employed in the erection of these houses.

A special committee was struck to consider the question of whether the nursing sisters should be considered eligible as members of the organization. The meeting voiced a strong feeling that the nursing sisters should be allowed to join.

The committee which was appointed recently for the purpose of arranging for addresses of good speakers and for luncheons by the association reported that a speaker had been secured for the first luncheon to be held at an early date.

Mr. Beaumont Boggs presided in the absence of Dr. Baptie. Several new members were elected, among them a brother of Colonel Pearkes, V.C., while several of the former members of the association who have been overseas were welcomed back, among them Mr. Boult, late lieutenant in the 2nd C.M.R., and Mr. Humphries.

In connection with the Child Welfare Exhibit that is to be held, commencing on Monday next, at the Congregational Church, it is announced that on Wednesday afternoon and evening the following subjects will be discussed:

In the evening Mrs. Graves will speak on "Supervised Playground and Recreation Centres," discussion led by Dr. Raynor. "Employment of Children of School Age," by Rev. Hugh Dobson; discussion led by Rev. H. T. Archbold.

Reeve C. E. Wilson will act as chairman for the afternoon; Mr. A. E. Forman, vice-president of the Canadian Club, will take the chair at the evening proceedings.

Recreation is re-creation through relaxing nervous tension, play in the natural recreation for children and young people. It is therefore a patriotic responsibility that each community provide adequate, wholesome recreation facilities for its citizens, young and old.

Realizing the seriousness of this need the Children's Bureau at Washington is directing a nation-wide recreational campaign. There are a few definite plans suggested for the immediate future. Every community is being urged to develop its playgrounds under competent play leadership, to encourage athletic leagues; to enlarge the membership and activities of its boys' and girls' clubs, its Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls. The school boards are being asked to open at least one building this Winter for neighborhood social activities, such as community civic, school orchestras, dramatic leagues and folk dancing.

The first week in September has been set aside for a patriotic play week, with one day for games and sports, one day for the boys and girls to be given the athletic badge test, one for fraternal order and club picnics, one for a pageant, and so on through the week, ending with Sunday, when it is hoped that the priests and pastors will talk on "The Godliness of Play."

The Playground and Recreation Association of America is co-operating with the Federal Bureau to make this campaign effective.

The aim of the State should be a year round municipally supported play system for every city of over 10,000 population and wholesome play for every community, however small.

England and France are saying "at whatever cost to our treasury let us give a normal life to our boys and girls." Can America say less?

HYAMS and McINTYRE
ORPHEUM

An attractive dramatic sketch, "Maybloom," will be presented at the Royal Victoria today and tomorrow as the headline attraction of the new Orpheum bill opening tonight.

"MAYBLOOM" FEATURE OF ORPHEUM BILL

Attractive Sketch of Hymans and McIntyre Headlines the Week-End Offering — Six Other Fine Acts.

The Orpheum programme offered tonight, tomorrow afternoon and evening at the Royal Victoria is one of diversified interest, containing all the elements of vaudeville and giving promise of being a big success. The bill is headed by those favorites in the two-a-day line, Hymans and McIntyre, who, after essaying the legitimate for a spell, have returned to their natural habitat. Vaudeville was long enough deprived of the services of this distinguished duo and they will be welcomed back again. Mr. Hyams is an ultra comedian and Miss McIntyre is as dainty and delightful as a rosebud. They will appear in a skit called "Maybloom." In this Mr. Hyams has every chance to work in his unctuous humor and Miss McIntyre is given opportunity to include her Quaker number in the songs she sings.

Charles and Henry Rigoletto are assisted by the Swanson Sisters and company in "Around the World," a muse of versatility. This act also discloses legerdemain characteristic study, song and dance, street musicians, juggling, posing, acrobatic stadium and work on the aerial ladder. This is by far the best act that these twin brothers have attempted.

"Golfing with Cupid," a new singing and dancing skit, with Charles Cartmel and Laura Harris, will be offered as a real novelty and will make an appeal. In these days when the world and his wife may be found at the links, this pair have evolved something new, and in addition have an opportunity for some comedy which brands them as excruciatingly funny and clever comedians.

In the ever-changing vaudeville firmament there are few stars whose lustre does not grow dim. Among these may be counted James Cullen, who is making his eighteenth Orpheum tour. This year his offering will be "The Man from the West." His offering is as breezy as the name of the presentation indicates. He is a rare humorist.

George Watts and Belle Hawley will offer "Laughs Coated with Melodies." Their act is all fun, the big part of which is supplied by Watts and the wrapping by his partner, Watts is exceedingly plump. Miss Hawley sings well, looks well—quite enough for any girl.

The record minstrel team of the world, Fox and Ward, for more than half a century have been entertaining the great public. They formed partnership in 1861, a partnership that is still in existence. Their hearts are still young and they perform as sprightly as they did half a century ago.

The Van Cellos are exponents of pedology. Two in this act, a woman and a man, have nimble feet which have won them a place at the top of foot jugglers. It taked but a twist of the ankle with either of these two to produce comedy and consequent laughter. Canadian films and a splendid orchestra offering will round out the bill.

ROMANO THEATRE "Dust of Desire" is the title of the latest World release, which will be shown at the Romano again today, and it will be interesting news for the patrons of this theatre to learn that this production is one of the most dramatic and intense pictures of the year. A newcomer in screen stardom is Rubye de Remer, whose interpretations of Beth Vinton, the society girl, thrown on her own resources and making her living by maintaining a tea house for New York's society people, and who, in order to marry the man she loves, tells him a lie about her past, is fired with the deep dramatic qualities which have marked her character portrayals upon the speaking stage. The story of "Dust of Desire" is by Clara Beranger, the well known story and scenario writer, and Forrest Halsey, the novelist. It is intense and gripping from start to finish.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Imagine a story of breathless movement set amid the contrasting scenes of the jungles of unexplored Africa and the luxurious atmosphere of American society, with Tarzan, the son of noble English parents, who has been raised in the heart of the wilds by an ape foster-mother, as the central figure, and one can obtain some idea of the treat in store for local film enthusiasts when "The Romance of Tarzan" will be shown again today at the Columbia.

This massive seven-part production is a visualization of the concluding chapters of Edgar Rice Burroughs' great story, "Tarzan of the Apes," which has been one of the outstanding sensations of the current season. Elmo Lincoln and Enid Markey repeat their previous triumphs in the leading roles of Tarzan and Jane Porter, the beautiful daughter of the American scientist.

PANTAGES THEATRE Masters of clog and "soft-shoe" dancing are the Oklahoma Four, the Western quartette of cowboys and cowgirls, at the Pantages this week. Rehearsing for a dance at a coming round-up, they go through intricate and nimble steps which are exceptionally entertaining. Their song numbers are not a small part of the charm of their act. Completely beautiful in voice, instrumental performance and stage setting is the act of the Beatrice Morelle sextette, an unusual aggregation of clear-voiced singers and skilful musicians, in a set gorgeous in royal blue. This is an unusual act of a very high standard. There are four other premier turns on the current programme, which scale the gamut of variety interest and compose one of the most entertaining vaudeville bills of the Winter season.

DOMINION THEATRE "The Thunderbolt," starring Katherine Macdonald, will be seen at the Dominion again today. This is the first picture of this star's to be released through First National Exhibitors' Circuit. It tells the story of a girl forced into a loveless marriage with her most bitter enemy. Eastern critics have praised it highly. Thomas Meighan, who plays the role of the unloving husband in "The Thunderbolt," admits that he is always unlucky when the time comes for selecting the cast of a photoplay. "They got the prettiest woman on the screen and then cast me in a part where I had to hate her," wails the unfortunate Thomas.

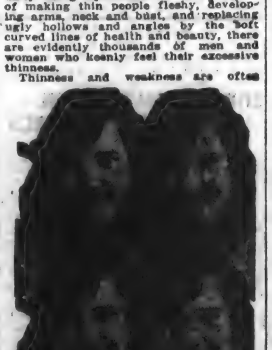

VARIETY THEATRE "Genuine successes never occur by accident." The truth of this is well exemplified by "Nine-tenths of the Law," starring Mitchell Lewis. Here is a combination of star and story that provokes the old expression of "hand in glove." It is evident that a close study of the star's ability and disposition has been made in the preparation of the scenario, which peculiarly fits Lewis' unusual characterization. "Nine-tenths of the Law" will be the last of Lewis' subjects of a special nature for some time, as he has entered upon a contract for regular work with Select Pictures. He leaves behind a series of notable subjects, which has increased in power with progressive releases. "Nine-tenths of the Law" is probably the high-water mark of the star's versatility. "Nine-tenths of the Law" will be shown again today at the Variety.

IF THIN AND NERVOUS, TRY PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Nitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as nitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, nitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, reporting her own experience, writes: "Nitro-Phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION:—While Nitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

GOSPEL PRINTED IN 517 LANGUAGES

The 115th report of the Bible Society, which covers the last year of the war, is a wonderful record of work accomplished under difficulties. To have printed and distributed nearly 9,000,000 volumes during 1918 would have been a great achievement if they had all been in one language.

The languages in which the society during its history has promoted the circulation of the Scriptures now number 517; for some of these there is no longer any demand, but there are still about 435 on the active list. Six new versions were printed in 1918, making 35 added to the language list during the war. In most of these the Gospel was not only the first book to be published, but the language had to be reduced to writing for the purpose. The total of 517 includes 134 in which the whole Bible is available, and 119 more in which the New Testament is completed.

The improvement of versions in circulation has continued steadily. In China committees consisting of Chinese students and foreign missionaries have been at work for 28 years, and have now completed the revision of the Bible in Wenli for the educated classes and in Mandarin for the whole Chinese-speaking people.

Of the 3,750,000 books issued, over 1,500,000 were in English; 1,250,000 were circulated in India, 500,000 in Japan and Korea, and 3,000,000 in China. Since August, 1914, more than 9,000,000 volumes in over 40 different languages have been distributed among combatants, prisoners of war, refugees, and members of labor battalions.

The committee are now facing the reconstruction of the work in Central Europe. Emergency editions are already in preparation for the Czecho-Slovaks, Poles, Roumanians and Yugo-Slavs.

The expenditure and the income were both the highest on record, being £329,704 and £329,259 respectively. The outlook for the future is complicated by the world-wide increase in the cost of all commodities and labor, and by the difficulties of exchange.—London Times.

SAYS EFFICIENCY WHAT IS NEEDED

Sir John Aird Tells of Labor Problem—Canada Shipping Steel and Coal to Great Britain.

Sir John Aird, the general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has arrived in London after a tour through Holland, Belgium and Northern France. He has given to a representative of The London Times his views of the economic position of Canada, and also some of his impressions of the devastated battle areas in Europe.

Speaking first of Canada, he pointed out that the war created a large amount of business, connected chiefly with war work, which had made Canada rich; but, on the other hand, her assistance to the Empire had brought a tremendous debt. The net result, however, was very much in favor of Canada, whose people had been fairly frugal during the war and had saved a great deal of money, as was indicated by the bank returns. To them was payable a great proportion of the interest on the money raised by Canada for war purposes. As this interest would remain in the country for reinvestment, they did not feel much anxiety with regard to the interest on Canadian debt held abroad, either in Great Britain or the United States. If Great Britain were in a position to repay Canada the net amount owing for food supplies, Canada would be in a very satisfactory condition as regards exchange, because she could then in turn pay the United States, which had a large balance against her, created to a considerable extent by the provision of raw materials, such as steel, required in making munitions.

"We have had," Sir John Aird went on, "a good average of crops and prices. But I do not think Canadians are now any better than British people as to extravagant expenditure. What would help Canada more than anything—and the same might be said of everybody—is economy and efficiency. Efficiency is at the bottom of it all. If we can bring that about, and go on producing such crops as we have been producing, we shall be able to increase our export trade very largely. That is all Canada needs—an increase of its export business not only with the Motherland and other parts of the Empire, but with foreign countries.

"Efficiency," he repeated, "is the keynote. It does not make so much difference how many hours a man works; if he can produce in eight going hard as much as in ten hours idling, so much the better. It is in efficiency we are in danger of falling down, both in this country and in Canada, as compared with the United States and other lands. I am hopeful that the labor leaders will see things in this light, and make the rank and file see them. If labor and capital do not combine for a common object, then other nations will get ahead of us, especially the Germans, who are willing workers and seem to be anxious to restore their country."

Mixed Races Problem

Sir John expressed the hope that next year many new settlers would come to Canada from Great Britain. Western Canada was already getting a considerable number from the United States. These Americans made first-class settlers. They understood Western farming conditions, were used to the climatic conditions, and could endure them, and as a rule brought money, or what was equivalent—livestock and implements. This class of American immigrants had become good citizens as a rule. But Canadians would, on the whole, prefer to see English, Scotch and Irish come to Canada, and not to have as large a foreign element in their population as the United States had. One of the advantages Great Britain possessed in settling labor troubles was that she was able to deal entirely with her own people. The United States were not—and had the negro problem, too. Of late years there had been an improvement in the class of British settlers in Canada. The day of the "remittance man" was past; which was a good thing for everybody. The man who came to Canada must make up his mind that, if he was to progress, he must work. It must be remembered that, while the soil of the United States had been pretty well brought under cultivation, that of Canada had as yet only been scratched.

"We have large quantities of raw material—timber, paper, steel, iron and coal which we are sending to you now. Yes, Canada is shipping to Great Britain a good deal of coal and steel—coals to Newcastle!—besides quantities of cereals, livestock and dead meat. We practically control the nickel output of the world; a third great mine has just been opened. Also, we are one of the biggest silver producing countries. We have had our labor troubles this year, but we think they are fairly well settled, though we may feel some effect from them this Winter."

In Belgium and Northern France Sir John had been struck by the fact that, though places like Vimy Ridge and the Chemin des Dames might never be restored, minor battlefields showed fewer traces of the war than might have been expected; from some of them crops had been taken this year. He believed Belgium would recover much more quickly than once seemed likely, particularly if she got the first indemnity. The Belgians were working hard, and, like the Dutch, made good use of their waterways. "Is there any reason," he asked, "why Great Britain should not have a proper canal system? The time is coming when transportation will be revolutionized. We are realizing this in Canada, and finding the motor lorry very useful for carrying lighter goods over short distances of 30 to 40 miles."

DECORATION FOR MEN NAMED IN DISPATCHES

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—In connection with the dispatch from London that it was contemplated that those who were mentioned in dispatches during the war should have permission to wear a small oak leaf on the ribbon of the victory medal, it is estimated here that 4,000 Canadians would be entitled to this extra decoration. It has been suggested that the maple leaf would be more appropriate for Canadians than the oak leaf, and it is probable that some effort will be made to have the maple leaf authorized for Canadian uses.

PRINCE GIVES DAY TO WEST POINT

turned by the Prince, who stopped and chatted for a few minutes with the children's school teacher.

At West Point the Prince was received by a military escort headed by Brig.-General McArthur, the commandant.

The scene on the historic heights was more than usually brilliant, for the sun shone in a cloudless sky and tipped the gleaming swords of the faultlessly-marching cadets with added splendor.

After luncheon and an inspection of the school buildings the Prince was driven at once to the Racquet Club. Here he dismissed his staff and engaged in a strenuous battle at squash with a couple of the club's crack players. He then drove to the Columbia Yacht Club, where he embarked for the Renown, on board of which he dined privately with only a handful of invited guests.

The evening had been left open for the royal visitor's disposal as he thought fit, and he elected to spend it at the theatre. Eighty-four seats were reserved at one of the popular revues for the royal party.

A visit to Oyster Bay, where he will lay a wreath on the grave of Theodore Roosevelt, and a reception to school children are the principal incidents included for tomorrow.

The Prince's visit to the U.S. will be brought to a close Saturday when he will confer medals on officers and sailors.

MR. F. L. CARTER-COTTEN PASSES TO HIS REST

to their having long since been settled, have long ago been forgotten. He was a staunch Imperialist, and it was largely due to the action of British Columbia, under the advice and at his instigation, in offering to take a million dollars' worth of stock in the Pacific cable, that that Imperial work was undertaken and completed, the value of which was more than demonstrated in the late war. He was a loyal colleague, a man easy to work with, of wide experience of the world, with a broad and liberal education, always a gentleman, and always tried to reason with an opponent, but never to abuse him and descend to the pastime sometimes too prevalent in politics known as slinging mud.

"The death of Mr. Carter-Cotton is indeed a severe blow to the public life of British Columbia, with which he has been associated so long," said Mr. H. H. Watson, who was for many years a brother member of Parliament. "He was always considered to be a safe man, and especially on matters of finance. As an old resident of the city, he will be seriously missed, having taken a prominent part in all public matters, and his demise will be very much regretted in Vancouver, especially by those who knew him in his earlier days. He enjoyed the confidence always of all members of the House on both sides, and, while he did not in recent years speak very often in public, there was nobody given a more attentive hearing than he was. At the time that he was in the saddle in the Province, during the regime of the Semlin-Cotton Government, the legislation introduced no doubt played a very important part in the molding of the future of B.C.

"Mr. Carter-Cotton was a man of superior judgment in regard to legislation," said Dr. G. A. McGuire, who for ten years sat as a fellow member of Parliament with the late statesman. He was very highly respected by all who came into contact with him, and all of the members held him in the highest respect during his term of service. Personally I appreciated his many sterling qualities, and as a friend I will miss him very much."

The late Mr. Carter-Cotton leaves, besides his widow, two sons and a daughter, Cecil F. Cotton, of this city; A. H. Cotton, of Savona, and Miss E. W. Cotton, who resides in Vancouver.

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—Sir Robert Borden, who, since leaving White Sulphur Springs, W. BLUECOATS AS HOSTS PROVE "HEROES ALL"

Sixth Annual Police Ball Held at the Exhibition Hall, Willows, Last Night, Attended by Seventeen Hundred.

The gallant policeman in "A Kiss for Cinderella," that most delightful of Barrie plays, would have looked "small potatoes" beside the stalwart members of the Victoria force in their role as hosts at the sixth annual police ball at the Willows last night.

The affair was staged on a vast scale and with the generous hospitality for which the Bluecoats are famous. Each, so for years past, in the main exhibit building at the Willows grounds, there was so much additional space on this occasion annexed in adjacent buildings for cloak-rooms and buffet that it cleared the ballroom of much that has hitherto tended to cramp the dancing area. The result was that the more than seventeen hundred people who poured themselves in condensed stream through the entrance-ways during the early evening, emerged ultimately into the wide freedom of the great floor with orderly arrangements and unjostling hundreds.

A foretaste of the glamor of the scene was hinted in the close-strung lights leading to the entrances outside. And verily a transformation had been accomplished within. Flags everywhere concealed the roughness of joist and beam, splashes of green and orange, scarlet and blue, replacing the unresponsive drab of the old walls. In the centre of the great floor, which has an area nearly four times as large as that of any other ballroom in the city, was the stage occupied by Professor Lou Turner's 25-piece band.

Round this hub of sound the dancers circled tirelessly all evening, those who set the pace at 9 o'clock being conspicuous as among the last to leave when the strains of the National Anthem at 3 o'clock this morning gave the signal for the happy people to disperse.

Rendezvous Appointed

No point making for the comfort and convenience of the great gathering had been overlooked. Six rendezvous, numbered alphabetically, were arranged about the sides of the ballroom so that partners should not fail each other in the great press of dancers. Ranged round the entire length of the east and west walls of the building were benches, and, in luxuriously carpeted spaces at the south end were comfortable chairs for those who wished to sit out a dance occasionally. Palms set about added to the attractiveness of the setting. The gallery on the left was reserved for spectators; the gallery on the right, leading past the flag-decked booth with its abundant supplies in the shape of cool drinks, was reserved for non-dancers who wished to devote the evening to cards.

Grand March Begins

Promptly to the minute at 9 o'clock the grand march led off, with His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Langley at the head of the procession, followed by Chief Langley with Lady Barnard, after them Commissioner Day and Miss Bodwell, Detective Perdue and Mrs. Day, and a long succession of couples that filed past in endless stream. The band from the beginning showed fine spirit in its playing, breaking from the march-music into a waltz, and from that carrying on into thirty dance tunes ranging through the whole gamut of fox-trots, one-steps, schottisches, etc. The bluecoats, smartly uniformed, with their brightly-polished buttons and badges, were the most picturesque element in the big assemblage, some twenty-five of the Victoria force being present and either mingling with the dancers or busying themselves with some of the various duties to which they were voluntarily assigned. Eleven of the Seattle police and three of the Vancouver men joined the throng as guests, and were among the most energetic of the dancers, while eight of the Northwest Mounteds with their scarlet jerkins, mingled effectively with the crowd. The Seattle visitors were Sgt. R. Omstead, Constable J. J. Crawford, R. Arnold and wife, Constable and Mrs. Bowie, Constable C. Hartnet and Mrs. Hartnet, Detective and Mrs. C. Wechter, Detective and Mrs. Champion, and Detective R. Shearer.

A novelty in connection with the dance programmes was that these read like toast lists, in lieu of the title of the music there were opposite the numbers the following:

"To the King," "To the Lieutenant-Governor," "To the Premier," "To the Mayor and City Council," "To Our Police Commissioners," "To Our Chief," "To Our Police Magistrate," "To Our City Prosecutor," "To Our Police Court Clerk," "To the Judges," "To Our Deputy Chief," "To Our Office Forces," "To Our Sergeants," "To Our Inspector of Detectives," "To Our Detective Department," "To Our Fire Department," "To Visiting Officers," "To Our Wives and Sweethearts," "To the Army and Navy," "To the Returned Boys," "To Our Women Police," "To Our Matron and Jailers," "To Our Patrol Drivers," "To Our Motor-cycle Corps," "To Our Boys on Duty Tonight," "To Langley's Bluecoats," "To Our Union," "To Our Newspaper Friends," "To the Provincial Police," "To Our Sergeants of Detectives." Last of all, before "God Save the King," was the waltz, "Goodbye, Everybody."

Supper Arrangements

Nothing in previous years has excelled in elaborateness the arrangements for the supper. Without being conscious of the work entailed, the public passed from the ballroom to the sumptuously-decked hall, where salads and trifles, jellies and galantines and sandwiches were spread in lavish abundance on the wide buffets. The ceiling and walls were smothered in flags and bunting, and a wonderfully effective color scheme was achieved by means of shaded table lights and vases of bronze and gold chrysanthemums, potted ferns and the baskets of high-piled fruit. No less than fourteen waitresses were in attendance to look after the wants of the guests, Sergt. Walker, Constables Florence, Hatcher and Heatley being in charge of this department.

All catering in connection with the ball was done by Mr. A. Hill, of the White Lunch, and as the buffet was open continuously from 10 until 3 o'clock, there was no need to issue supper tickets.

All the decorations in the supper-room were carried out under the supervision of Driver Calwell, and earned him many compliments during the evening.

The buffet, it should be noted, occupied the basement of the Women's Building, which is adjacent to, but some distance from, the main hall. What the police achieved in connecting the two buildings by means of covered-in and carpeted ways was hardly realized by most of the guests, the necessary alterations having been so effectively carried out that most of the dancers were not even aware that they had crossed from one structure to the other—despite the rain which has had to be reckoned with during the past few days. The upstairs floor of the Women's Building was sectioned off to serve as cloak-rooms, four attendants checking the wraps for the ladies and the same number looking after the men's belongings. Here, as elsewhere throughout the buildings, the lighting had been carefully attended to.

Cars Parked

With such a vast number of guests it was to have been expected that Hundreds of motor-cars would require to be parked outside. With the forethought of long experience in such matters, the police had provided against "muddle" in this connection, and a corps of "outside" men, in charge of Constable Acreman, saw that the machines were drawn up in their order, checks being handed out to the drivers so that they might know exactly where their respective motors were to be found. The Oak Bay police gave much assistance in ordering and directing the traffic, which was the heaviest on record for any such event.

The "official" guests were welcomed on arrival by the reception committee, which was composed of the following:

George Jay, Police Magistrate; J. M. Langley, Chief of Police; Thomas Palmer, Deputy Chief; G. M. Perdue, Inspector of Detectives; H. J. O'Leary, Detective Sergeant; Sergt. R. H. Walker, Detective Victor Heather, Jailer Thomas Hall and Constables W. Harper and A. H. Bishop.

Sergt. John Fry made a splendid Master of Ceremonies, with Constable Frank Jones as assistant. The floor committee comprised Sergts. Boulton and Carlow, Detectives Heather, Phipps and Siciliano, Constables G. Forster, Allen, Heatley, Palmer, Shakespeare and Pook.

Driver W. Calwell was chairman of the management committee, associated with him being Constables J. A. McLellan and J. Anderson, George Varney acting as secretary.

The entire proceeds from the ball, which is universally conceded to be the most successful from every standpoint that the Victoria police have held, are being handed over to the Victoria Police Mutual Benefit Association's fund.

TAXATION ENQUIRY STARTED YESTERDAY

The Alderman urged that the Government revert to the old system of granting fifty-five per cent of the school expenditure, as the city's expenses for this department had risen so high. He asked further that the license revenue on cars owned in the city, theatre and fire insurance taxes should go to the city.

When the alderman referred to the Government's responsibility in the question the Premier interrupted with, "We're not going to allow you to make this a political meeting or campaign. Deal with the legislation and trouble from its inception."

"If you want to be fair you should hand back the revenue collected by these means since your term of office," the alderman asserted, denying that he had any political ideas in his mind. "The city has to keep up the streets, sewers, etc., about theatres, surely the city deserves the taxes from the theatre."

The Premier said, "You take the stand that revenue originating in the city belongs to the city. How can you reconcile that with a request for any assistance from the Government for school purposes?"

"We are not asking for all the sources of revenue in the city," was the response, "and, moreover, the Government is getting the income tax from the people of the city."

Alderman Cameron complained that while motor cars had to pay for licences there was no such levy on yachts. Hon. John Hart explained that they came under the personal property tax. The alderman claimed the Government should be more prompt in the collection of income tax, so that high-salaried men who stayed in the city only a short time would be made to pay. He did not like the idea of big corporations getting a ten per cent. discount on the income tax, and claimed that the Government lost several hundreds of thousands right there.

A suggestion from Alderman Cameron that the Government do all the selling of liquor and thus derive the revenue was greeted with favor by the gathering.

Alderman Sargent did not think it was fair for the city to stand the full costs of the administration of justice.

Mr. James Forman pointed out that there were men who did not own property but who made large sums of money without contributing to the city's coffers.

He further said that the city had to bear the costs of prosecutions under the Prohibition Act while the Province got the revenue from the sale of liquor.

Mr. F. S. Landsberg was against the present system by which 5,600 people pay for the upkeep of the city.

Mr. J. S. Yates thought the city should have the right to rent land taken over in tax sales for a longer period. Hon. John Hart replied that the city could rent for twenty years, but Mr. Yates claimed this was not long enough.

Mr. C. T. Cross wanted a tax levied on tenants as well as owners.

"This rental system of rates is one of the most pernicious in existence," asserted Mr. Woodward. "In large cities this had led to the existence of rookeries, and also to dukes, lords and others holding vacant land which is sorely needed for housing."

"Conditions are very serious," asserted Mr. Pemberton. "It is getting so that the land is not worth the taxes on it."

Hector L. Cowper, Saanich municipal clerk, stated that Saanich was not in the same fix as her neighbors, but that additional revenue would be appreciated.

Duncan was gradually getting a financially clean slate, James Greig, clerk, testified, but there were thousands of young men who were not paying the poll tax and from whom it was impossible to collect under present conditions.

That the Government pay for the upkeep of roads running through Courtenay as the highways were used mainly by tourists who paid nothing to the community was the contention of Major William Duncan, who also urged the Government to build a consolidated school at Courtenay to take the place of a number of small ones.

In the opinion of Mayor McKenzie of Nanaimo, the municipalities should get the motor tax as they had to pay for the upkeep of the roads.

Alderman John Thompson, of Cumberland, thought that the licences on places selling near beer should be increased, as they seemed to be making as much money as ever.

The Premier said that apparently a good deal of the whole trouble had been caused by the fact that the municipalities had gone astray from the statutory provisions which were to the effect that land should be assessed at its real value. "It looks," the Premier remarked, "as if the property holders had allowed themselves to get in a hole, and now they come to the Government and say 'Pull me out.'"

Need All the Facts

At the opening of the afternoon session Mr. F. A. McDiarmid, solicitor for the B.C. Union of Municipalities, suggested that as that body would meet the Commission at Vancouver next week it might be possible for the Government to supply information which is not available to the municipalities but could be secured from the Government's records. All taxation should be based upon wealth, said Mr. McDiarmid. The land values are known through the municipal records but there is nothing available to the municipalities to show the personal property values. But the Government, through its income tax and personal property returns, already was in possession of this information and, Mr. McDiarmid suggested, if that information was supplied to the union the latter would be in a position to better present the case. The records of the Workmen's Compensation Board would also, Mr. McDiarmid thought, throw light upon the actual turnover of the industrial concerns in the Province.

Premier Oliver pointed out that he doubted such to be the case, the Board having information only as to salaries paid by such concerns.

Hon. John Hart pointed out to Mr. McDiarmid that the Government did have much information on the values referred to but it was not segregated according to municipal limits but as to assessment districts and it would be a very great task to segregate it by municipalities. At the same time the Government was taking steps to so compile that information that it would be available when the whole question came before the Government.

Can Pay Debts

That the municipalities are part of the Government of the country and that they could pay all their debts if they could tax wealth within their limits, was Mr. J. J. Shallcross' argument. The municipalities know the value of the land and buildings. The commission should have before it the value of personal property and incomes. In fact, all wealth, taxed or taxable, which has been created through the municipal activities, should be known. Much of this information was now in the hands of the Government and should be produced if the inquiry was to prove of any value.

Mayor Huff, Alberni, thought that many of the suggestions made relative to granting a share of present Provincial taxation to the municipalities might relieve the situation in the larger cities but would do nothing for the outlying districts. For instance, motor license fees would be very small in such a district as Alberni. If the Government relinquished some of its present sources of revenue he supposed it would have to get others to make up the loss. There was one of two ways, he thought, in which this could be done. For instance, the main roads in Alberni were used more by outsiders than by residents, and the tourist traffic occasioned a heavy outlay for upkeep of such roads. There might be a graduated scale of fees on motor vehicles according to size and weight. Then, too, the cost of policing is excessive for both municipal and Provincial officers are covering a district where there is not actually enough work for one man. In the outlying sections the policing could be taken over by the Provincial Police, the municipality to pay a small share of the cost. A tax of one cent per gallon on gasoline might be levied, thus reimbursing the Government to a certain extent for its outlays upon the roads. A reduction in the cost of school maintenance, now a heavy burden on the outside sections, would prove of great benefit.

Cowichan municipality was not in the same position as Victoria, Councillor E. W. Carr-Hilton stated. It comprised about 35,000 acres containing about 3,500 taxpayers. Its debt was not heavy though question of taxation was a pressing one. He thought a portion of the motor license fees, the gun tax, poll tax, etc., could well be handed over to the municipalities.

The inquiry adjourned to meet this morning at 10 o'clock.

SEVENTH BATTALION HOLDING REUNION

First Gathering In Victoria on Tuesday Planned for Purpose of Organizing Club of Members of Famous Unit.

There is a strong 7th Battalion Club in Vancouver, but in Victoria, up to the present, there has been no effort to form a corresponding organization. However, the initial move in this direction is about to be taken, the dinner which is to be held at the Dominion Hotel on Tuesday evening at 7:30, having been devised for the purpose of bringing together local members of the famous unit with a view to forming an association, and tickets may be had now at the G.W.V.A. offices, the K. of C. Hut, the Comrades of the Great War, or from Mr. W. Merston, No. 7 Brown Block.

This will be the first "reunion" dinner of the 7th Battalion men in Victoria, as already noted, and in honor of the occasion and to help along the objective Brigadier-General Odlum and Colonel Gilson, the latter O.C. of the unit, are coming over from Vancouver to attend the function. They will be the chief speakers of the evening. Sergt.-Major Dawson, D.C.M., will be in the chair, and already, it is understood, between sixty and seventy veterans have signified their intention of being present.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish High Water from Low Water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower Low Water.

Esquimalt—To find the depth of water on the sill of the Dry Dock at any tide, add 18.9 feet to the height of High Water as above given.

Woman's Hair Reaches to Knees

A Year Ago Was Threatened With Baldness. Tells How She Made Her Hair Grow

Mrs. Esther Emery, now visiting friends in the city, is the fortunate possessor of marvelously beautiful hair, which, when loosened from its coils, falls to her knees. Moreover it is of soft, silky and fluffy texture and in color a glorious, glossy gold. Yet just one year ago she was threatened with baldness. Urged to tell how she had obtained this wonderful growth in so short a time, she said:

"Twelve months ago my hair, which then reached barely to my shoulders, was falling out at an alarming rate and growing very thin, actually exposing the bald scalp in several spots. It was dull and lifeless in color, turning grey in patches, and very dry and brittle. My head was covered with dandruff and itched like mad all the time. I tried fully a dozen different hair tonics, but they never did me a bit of good. One day I chanced to read in my home paper of a simple home prescription to make the hair grow that was recommended by a well-known physician. It said that by taking ordinary Lavona de Composee and mixing it with Bay Rum and Menthol Crystals and applying to the scalp each night with the finger tips new hair would grow very rapidly. I decided to try it, and had my druggist mix 2 ounces of the Lavona de Composee with 6 oz. of Bay Rum and ½ dr. of Menthol Crystals, and started to use it. My, how quickly my hair did grow. First the hair stopped falling, the itching ceased and the dandruff disappeared. Then tiny little hairs appeared all over my scalp. These grew and grew as though nothing would ever stop them. They are growing yet, and while, of course, I have used the treatment steadily and expect to continue it, at least until my hair reaches the floor, I might have stopped and been perfectly satisfied at the end of three months. I think any woman can get long, thick, beautiful hair by using this prescription, as I have recommended it to several friends and all are delighted with the result. The prescription is very inexpensive and any druggist can fill it."

Those who use it should be careful not to get it on the face or where the hair is not desired.

MINISTERS WILL CONSIDER PLANS

Shipbuilding Future to Be Dealt With by Government Very Shortly, Dispatch Says —Various Proposals.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 20.—During the next week the Government is likely to consider closely the question of its shipbuilding policy, says an Ottawa dispatch to The Province. The two ministers most interested are, naturally, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine, who has been responsible for the Government's shipbuilding policy, and Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, who will have to provide the funds necessary for carrying it out.

The Government, so far, has built or has under contract over 50 vessels. Some twelve or fifteen of these are already completed, and before the first of the year ten or twelve more will be ready for sea. They are on various trade routes in all parts of the world, and the Government is well satisfied with the result. They have opened up business for Canada at a time when there was a world shortage of shipping, and it is estimated that the vessels will all have paid for themselves in three years' time, if rates continue near to their present height. However, the question now arises as to future construction and a continuation of the policy of constructing Government-owned vessels.

If the Government is not going to continue its building policy, and it apparently does not intend to do so except on a limited scale, the question arises as to what form encouragement to shipbuilding should take in the future.

Two Interesting Suggestions

This will be one of the matters under discussion by the Ministry during the week. The plan of a bonus to the shipbuilding industry has been the one generally advocated; but there are strong objections to such a policy. The farmers particularly are against the bonusing principle in any industry. Two interesting suggestions have been put forward recently, and there is good reason to believe that they will be given consideration by the Ministers concerned. One proposal is that the Government should assist ship buyers in financing. It is pointed out that in Great Britain there are companies which make a regular business of financing construction by underwriting the bonds of ship-owning companies.

There are no such facilities in Canada, as the industry is comparatively new. It is suggested that the Government might undertake this method of encouraging the industry in preference to bonusing.

Another suggestion is that the Government should encourage the purchase of ships by private capital and help the shipbuilding industry, by allowing a substantial amount annually for depreciation, which should be taken into consideration in estimating business profits or revenue taxation.

TO CARRY CHRISTMAS CHEER TO WEST COAST

Newington Leaves Late Next Week With Supplies and Navy League Boxes—Estevan to Get Away Tuesday.

The lighthouse tender Newington will get away for the West Coast lighthouse stations at the latter end of next week with Christmas supplies. She arrived here yesterday, and will go up the Gulf on regular work before making the Santa Claus voyage.

The Estevan will leave Tuesday for northern B. C. points with Christmas supplies. Several dray loads of Christmas boxes have already been delivered to the Marine Department by the Navy League to cheer the lightkeepers and their families.

BELGIAN SOCIALISTS CONSIDER WAR DEBT

ANTWERP, Nov. 19.—Belgian Socialists are in agreement with the Government on the economic question, according to an interview with Camille Huysmanns, the Belgian Socialist leader, printed in Neptune.

M. Huysmanns said he considered the financial question as the most important at the present time, Belgium's debt being eighteen billion francs. It was useless to promise labor high pensions, he declared, as no money available.

To pay off the war debt in fifty years, as proposed by Premier Lloyd George, means to pay it twice, the Socialist leader added. It was better to extinguish it by one levy rather than by a series of taxes, he contended.

"If Germany pays to Belgium the sums necessary to rebuild the railways and Channel ports," M. Huysmanns said, "that is all we can expect.

"The intellectual classes, who so far have constituted the proletariat and aristocracy," he concluded, "must descend from their throne. We can do for intellectual labor what we did for manual labor."

Movies in Ontario

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—Hon. Peter Smith, provisional treasurer, said yesterday that there was no thought of transferring the control of motion pictures from the treasury department to any other. The possibility was suggested a few days ago, and on Tuesday a deputation of representatives of the picture industry called upon Mr. Smith to protest against a change.

Miners Strike at Minto, N.S.

SYDNEY, N.S., Nov. 20.—The Minto strike is on. United Mine Workers' headquarters announced that the strike order went into effect at midnight and that it will not be recalled until the company makes a settlement satisfactory to the men. The trouble is a result of the demand of the men for a ten per cent wage increase and the award of a Board of Conciliation granting less than one per cent.

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.

Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the unenameled tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for disease germs to enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhea.

They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.

So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) if used in time and used consistently.

And in preventing Pyorrhea—it guards against other ills.

Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

Stomach Troubles Are Due to Acidity

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief for Acid Indigestion

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food, are in probably nine cases out of ten, simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid.

To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, a good and effective corrector of acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating or whenever gas, sourness or acidity is felt. This sweetens the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antacid, such as bisurated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form, enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestents. Magnesia comes in several forms, so be certain to ask for and take only Bisurated Magnesia, which is especially prepared for the

DREADNAUGHT HITS PIER AT LAUNCHING

Brakes Unable to Hold Back California After Leaving Ways — Coasted Half a Mile—One Hurt.

VALLEJO, Cal., Nov. 20.—The super-dreadnaught California was launched from the navy's shipbuilding plant at Mare Island at 11:45 a.m. today.

The brakes rigged up to stop the ship in the narrow channel failed to hold, and she crashed into a pier of the Mare Island-Vallejo ferry, tearing away ten feet of the slip and endangering a number of spectators. She finally came to a stop in shallow water.

Workmen on the California, seeing that the brakes were not going to hold, warned all spectators away from the ship as the vessel was about to crash. The California coasted for half a mile, despite the brakes. Tugs were soon engaged in endeavoring to pull her off into the stream.

ARMY AND NAVY VETERANS ENTERTAIN

Military Five Hundred and Dance Attended by Three Hundred Members and Ladies of the Association.

The Army and Navy Veterans held one of the first social "Get-Together" functions of its kind last night when some 300 people, consisting of the members, ladies' auxiliary, wives and dependents of the organization met to do battle in a series of military five hundred contests.

Ten prizes were donated by the supporters of the Veterans, all of them of a substantial and extremely practical nature. One consisting of a half ton of coal being an especially timely gift. After a keenly contested series of games, the merry assembly were regaled with refreshmnts, and then indulged in dancing. The offerings of the three-piece orchestra proving extremely acceptable to guests, and dancing was kept up until a late hour.

The committee in charge of affairs was the social committee of the Army and Navy Veterans, and much of the success of the occasion was due to their untiring efforts.

Acting under the energetic chairmanship of Padre Hinchcliffe, the committee was composed of the following: Honorary secretary, W. A. Hadley, and Messrs. P. E. Corby, A. G. Snelling, J. McIntosh, W. T. Williams and G. J. Stockman.

The Army and Navy Veterans are indebted to the following for the substantial prizes donated: Col. Prior, Mr. Snelling, Major Longstaffe, Victoria Book & Stationery, H. W. Hamon, Iver Smith and James Adams.

Boys Will Be Boys

A conversation got set a-going in a railway compartment as to whether boys or girls are the more sensible, and non-competing listeners were about equally divided in their sympathies until the last man came in strongly on the feminine side.

"Take my own lad," said he; "the rascal was at a children's party the other night, and as the rain had set in badly I sent a cab at a cost of five shillings to fetch him home dry. Blessed if he didn't arrive with the water oozing out of his very boots.

"'What the dickens does this mean?' I inquired. 'Oh father,' said he, 'it was great fun. I rode home on the dickey.'"

Absent-Minded

It was a tramway conductor's duty in the church of which he was a member to take up the collection one day, and, as it happened, this first experience of such duty. He was a little nervous as he started down the centre aisle, but that soon wore off, and he began to feel almost at home. There were several children in the first pew, and each put in a penny. The people in the next pew also contributed something each.

A big, glum fellow sat alone in the third pew. The collector passed him the plate, but the man shook his head and stuck his hands deep in his pockets. Thereupon the conductor stopped, put up his hand as if to jerk the bell-cord, and said, "Well, you'll have to get off."

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing, and have head noises, will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them, and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼-pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.

S.P.C.A. REVIEWS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

Encouraging Reports Submitted by Officers at Annual Meeting of Humane Organization in City Hall.

Mr. A. R. Sherwood will direct the activities of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals during the ensuing year, having been elected to that office by acclamation, together with the following officers and executive committee at the annual meeting of the society held last evening in the Council Chamber of the City Hall: Vice-President, Rev. William Stevenson; secretary, Mr. W. B. Pease; treasurer, Mr. J. Braden; veterinary surgeons, Dr. Hamilton and Dr. Keown; legal counsel, Mr. Lindley Crease, K.C.; executive members, Miss Kitto, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. Hewlings, Mrs. Bass, Mrs. Pease, Mayor Porter, Mr. J. Kennedy, Mr. Palmer, Mr. Downes, Mr. W. E. Perry.

Miss Dora Kitto read an instructive paper on the activities of the Jack London Club, the members of which have refused to patronize any theatre where performing animals were presented, believing that their training could only be accomplished by cruel methods. Mrs. Margaret Jenkins, president of the Women's Canadian Club, Mr. Lindley Crease, Mr. Palmer, Mr. S. H. Johnson and Mr. Forrester also addressed the meeting briefly, offering a number of valuable suggestions, which received the approval of the gathering.

Secretary's Report

The Secretary, Mr. Pease, read the following review of the year's work:

"I regret to announce that the financial state of the Society is very far from satisfactory. Owing to the abnormally high rate of taxes many business firms have found it necessary to greatly reduce or to suspend altogether the payment of subscriptions to charitable organizations. In spite of the strenuous efforts of the committee it has been impossible to collect as large a sum from individual subscribers as has been done in former years. The city grant has been reduced from $200 to $100. A tag day was organized and held on the first of November, but owing to the inclemency of the weather the result was disappointing. So great is the need for funds that your committee has been forced to the conclusion that, until more money can be raised, the invaluable services of the inspector must be dispensed with. How great a loss this will be will become apparent at the reading of the inspector's report.

"Your committee has frequently discussed the important questions relative to the education of children with regard to the proper care of and kindness to animals, and a deputation waited upon the Minister of Education with the object of getting such teaching definitely included in the curriculum for public schools. The city pound has been visited on different occasions and many efforts made to get this place of detention put into a more sanitary and comfortable state than it is at present.

Treatment of Imprisoned Animals

"At the invitation of the Local Council of Women a member of the committee accompanied a deputation of that body to bring to the attention of the Parks Committee of the City Council the indignation and disgust felt by the two bodies represented at the way in which the animals in the Park are condemned to useless imprisonment under conditions entirely foreign to their natures. On this matter Mr. Walter F. Burton has been consulted and a letter stating his opinions reflecting on the way in which these animals are treated, and what in his opinion ought to be done to improve the conditions under which they are kept was forwarded to the City Council.

"Questions with regard to merciful ways of killing animals have been carefully gone into and a Greeper Humane Killer has been ordered for the use of the Society's officials.

"Your committee has passed a resolution expressive of sympathy with the objects of the Jack London Club.

"The retiring committee strongly recommends to the consideration of the committee to be elected the importance of having (as soon as funds permit) an office situated conveniently for receiving subscriptions, answering inquiries, etc., and to act as an advertisement of the society's existence.

Donors Thanked

"The thanks of the Society are given to Miss Saunders for the use of her studio for committee meetings, and to Mr. McKeon for the use of his office fo rthe same purpose. The thanks of the Society are also given to the clergy and ministers of the city who, in response to our appeal, brought the work of the Society before their congregations on Humane Sunday, the 13th July; also to C. L. Harrison, Esq., public prosecutor; Curtis Sampson, Esq., hon. auditor; the B.C.E.R., the Press, Veterinary Surgeon, Dr. H. Keown, and to all those who have aided the Society in its fight against cruelty and tyranny towards those animals that live defenseless at the mercy of their owners."

Mr. J. Braden submitted the treasurer's statement, audited by Mr. W. Curtis Sampson, which showed receipts from all sources, including a balance of $61.35 brought forward, and $441.20 proceeds of tag day, amounted to $1,132.02; while the expenditures were $896.19, leaving a balance in the bank of $235.83.

Inspector's Report

The report of the inspector, Mr. W. J. McKeown, was given as follows:

"I have the honor to submit herewith the annual report of the work done by the Victoria Branch of the S.P.C.A. during the year ending November 20th, 1919.

"I made it my business, as well as inspecting animals, to inspect the stables and places in which they are kept, in the municipalities as well as the city.

"During the past year some 270 cases of alleged cruelty were investigated, with the following results: 205 cautions, with advice, were given; 39 animals, mostly horses, were given treatment by veterinary surgeons; 10 condemned horses were destroyed, 19 homeless cats were disposed of, 11 cats removed from telephone poles.

"I have taken eight cases to court and obtained six convictions. In conclusion I wish to thank the committee, also the veterinary surgeons, for their kind assistance and advice at all times."

TORPEDOED!

Don't blast your Liver and Bowels, but take "Cascarets."

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach and colds.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or shocking your insides every few days with Calomel, Salts, Oil and violent pills?

Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Cascarets never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience, and Cascarets cost so little, too.

STOCKS MAKE RALLY FROM LOW LEVELS

Early Hesitation Caused by Senate's Action on Peace Treaty Is Followed by Measure of Recovery.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A comprehensive rally of from 3 to 20 points in the stock market today gave promise that reactionary influences are in retreat. The rise followed early misgivings that the defeat of the peace treaty might cause another decline.

Stocks were heavy, almost weak, at the outset, but this condition was speedily overcome, even though exchange on London and other foreign centres fell to lowest quotations ever recorded here.

From the first rally stocks showed almost steady improvement, the advance being attended by the easiest money in more than a week. Throughout the session brokers showed substantial buying. Only moderate amounts of money were in demand at the opening rate of 10 per cent, the inquiry evidently being so slight as to cause a drop with the approach of the final hour.

Time money was again quoted unchanged, but reports credited interior institutions with making loans at as low as 7¼ per cent.

The strength of such recent issues as Crucible Steel, General Motors and Mexican Petroleum, leaders in their respective groups, suggested that the shorts were having some trouble in covering. This was applicable to many less speculative stocks, of which the available supply seemed very small.

Maximum prices were made in the final dealings, when U.S. Steel and other leaders were at their best.

Sales amounted to 1,200,000 shares. International issues rallied, but the domestic bond list, including the Liberty group, was moderately lower. Total sales, par value, $14,500,000.

WAS HARDY ABLE TO WALK, SHE SAYS

Mrs. Wilson Found Tanlac to Be Just the Medicine She Had Been Needing.

"I had not finished my first bottle of Tanlac before I was convinced I had found the medicine I needed," said Mrs. J. Wilson, who resides at 7040 Nanaimo Road, Vancouver, B. C. Continuing, she said:

"I had been in wretched health for a year. My stomach was in such bad condition I could not eat the slightest thing without suffering. I had scarcely any appetite, and would go for weeks at a time and only eat but one meal a day. Why, the very smell of anything cooking would nauseate me. What little I did manage to force down would sour, gas would form and press against my heart so I could hardly breathe, and I would suffer from palpitation of the heart. I would bloat badly after every meal and would have the most intense pains. I also had pains in the small of my back that were so bad I could barely manage to get around, and I had the headache almost continuously. My nerves were in terrible condition, and the least noise out of the ordinary would completely upset me. I could sleep but very little, and would roll and toss all night long, and get up in the morning hardly able to drag about. I was so weak I was unable to do my housework, and was barely able even to walk. I was also troubled with constipation, and had to take laxatives all the time.

"I decided to try Tanlac, and by the time I had finished my first bottle I was a great deal better. I kept on taking it until I had taken five bottles and now I am glad to see meal time come, for I can eat anything I want, and everything agrees with me perfectly. I now feel altogether different to what I did before taking Tanlac for I never have a pain of any kind. I am never troubled with gas or bloating, and haven't had the headache since I started taking Tanlac. My nerves are in good condition and I sleep like a child all night long and get up in the morning feeling simply fine. I owe all my improved condition to Tanlac, and never fail to say a good word for it when I have the opportunity."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, Druggist. (Advt.)

GOVERNMENT ROUTE IMPRESSES VISITOR

Mr. Moreton Frewen, English Financier and Economist, Accompanied Premier Oliver on Trip Over P.G.E. System.

Premier Oliver returned yesterday morning from a four days' trip over the line of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway System, a trip taken chiefly for the purpose of permitting Mr. Moreton Frewen, the well-known English financial expert and economist, the opportunity of investigating the route and the potentialities thereof. In view of the standing in the financial world of Mr. Frewen the Premier considered it was in the interests of the Province to give him the opportunity sought for and accompanied him.

Premier Oliver stated the visitor was greatly struck with the scenic beauties along the line, expressing the opinion that he had never seen a more beautiful country though he has visited nearly all the noted portions of the world claiming scenic charms. But owing to the fact that the trip did not extend further north than the 105-Mile House because of the necessity for the Premier returning to Victoria in time to attend the sessions of the Municipal Inquiry, which opened here yesterday, Mr. Frewen did not have that opportunity to study the system from the business and economic side that he desired.

The Premier stated that the regular service from Squamish north is now in operation following the completion of the new bridge over the Cheakmus Canyon to replace that destroyed by forest fires some time ago. Small mud slides on the line occurred last Monday but these were quickly cleared away and interruption to traffic was slight. Weather conditions, which a few days ago were cold, the thermometer going down away below zero, had suddenly changed and conditions were remarkably mild with little snow on the higher elevations.

Accompanying the Premier and Mr. Frewen was Chief Engineer Proctor, of the Department of Railways, who remained over in Vancouver, where Mr. Frewen will also stop for a day or two.

NANAIMO, Nov. 20.—Last night at Foresters' Hall Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, told the farmers of the district the story of the co-operative movement among the farmers of the Chilliwack and Victoria districts, under which the middleman is being eliminated to the farmers' benefit.

The South Wellington farmers brought to the attention of the Minister the flooding of their farms by the waters of Beck Lake. The grievance was being looked into by Mr. J. A. McDonald, of the Land Settlement Board, and early action by the department might be expected.
